

Office Ready for Cancer Day, April 20

The new office opened by the Ulster County Branch of the American Cancer Society in the county building on Fair street is ready to handle additional donations on Cancer Day, Wednesday, April 20. Mrs. Harry Parker Van Wagenen, executive director of the local branch, is shown looking over the reports on the drive in this area to help the cancer fund. She stressed that contributions must be stepped up to reach the county quota of $12,000. City Chairman Richard Kalish has announced that those who have not been solicited, or donors desiring to increase their contributions, may phone the Cancer Office at 2757 or call him at the Kingston Laundry, downtown, 284. 19 Nazi Officials Get Prison Terms

Appeals Are Made by All; Berger Gets Longest Term, 25 Years

Nuernberg, Germany, April 14 (AP)—Nineteen high Nazi officials, convicted in the final American war crimes trial, drew prison sentences today ranging from four to 25 years.

Each will receive a reduction of sentence equal to the time he has spent in jail—about four years. They promptly appealed to have the verdicts and sentences set aside on grounds the U. S. tribunal which tried them lacked jurisdiction.

Gottlob Berger, SS (Elite Guard) lieutenant general who was convicted of crimes including participation in mass murder and atrocities, drew sentences aggregating 25 years, the heaviest imposed on any of the 19. All had been found guilty of helping in various ways the Nazi horror program of aggression, plunder, brutality and murder.

The best known of the 19 Baron Franz von Helldorf, was sentenced to seven years. He is a former envoy to the Vatican and former state secretary of the German foreign ministry.

Charges on which he was sentenced were helping Hitler plot aggressive war against Czechoslovakia and participating in the campaign of atrocities against the Jews.

Two of the 19 defendants were acquitted by the court which last night finished a three-day reading of its 833-page opinion. One of the three American judges dissented from most of the convictions.

Judge Leon W. Powers of Denison, Ia., complained in his dissent.

House Will Run Money Bills Over 24-Billion Mark

Washington, April 14 (AP)—The House was set today to run its total money bills for this week over the $24,000,000,000 mark—then quit until April 25.

A $7,576,896,231 appropriation bill financing 28 independent federal agencies for the year starting July 1 was the first bill in the series of the lawmakers' Easter recess.

Vacation-minded members appeared ready to shove it to the Senate with the same speed which marked passage yesterday of a record piece—time $16,000,000,000 defense bill and a $595,890,000 emergency measure for veterans' education and unemployment benefits.

Those bills went to the Senate, which acted last night on another, highly controversial appropriation measure: A deficiency money bill which included $2,500,000 to let the Tennessee Valley Authority start building a steam plant for generating electricity.

The bill to round out funds for a number of agencies in the fiscal year ending June 30, called for total expenditures of $338,453,473. It was passed by voice vote and sent to a conference committee to iron out differences with the House measure.

The independent officials bill before the House appeared headed for no such battling as that which the T.V.A. steam plant encountered.

But token amendment attempts were expected, aimed at (A) restoring some of the money cut by the appropriations committee from the Veterans' Administration and

'Worst Earthquake' Hits Wide Area; Masonry Showers Upon Streets

Seattle, April 14 (AP)—The Pacific northwest today counted eight deaths and damage which may reach $10,000,000 in the wake of its worst recorded earthquake.

Governor Arthur B. Langlie of Washington gave a "purely tentative" damage figure for yesterday's violent shock. He said the final count may range between $2,000,000 and $10,000,000.

This was based on reports to the governor from the Red Cross, the state patrol and other agencies.

The earthquake, at 11:55 a. m. P.S.T. yesterday, caused scores of injuries.

Bricks showered off cornices and building facades; chimneys toppled from residences and in industrial plants; plate glass cracked and shattered; roads sagged and split; moving automobiles rumbled and many parked machines were battered and dented by falling masonry.

Two small, unoccupied houses on Fox Island, near Tacoma, Wash., were dumped into Puget Sound.

Cities from Vancouver and Victoria, B.C., in the north, southward to Oregon towns in the Salem area felt the quiverings of the quake. Scientists rated it of No. 8 intensity, which compares to a total destruction quake of No. 12.

The Red Cross and state and federal agencies stood by today ready to plunge in with aid. A Red Cross official said today not a single person had applied in the Seattle area for aid for injuries, but that Red Cross funds would be forthcoming to rebuild homes damaged by the quake, on a basis of individual need.

John Calkins, Red Cross field director, augmented his headquarters at Olympia, where the need for housing was underscored by the evacuation of hotels and homes.

Governor's Statement

Gov. Langlie at Olympia, the state capital, said:

"Everyone is going to have to pitch in and do what he can." Olympia was especially hard hit. The old capital building and the insurance building were the most severely damaged, and were ordered closed. Six other state buildings were shaken and cracked but inspectors said they still were sound.

Two of the quake dead were in Olympia. Falling chimney bricks killed Perceval Bisson, a venerable plant steamfitter. Mrs. C. W. West died of a heart attack when the quake shook her hotel.

Tacoma, 30 miles south of Seattle, reported "scores and scores" were treated for shock.

President Expects Government to Be Billion in Red

Special Fund for Veterans, He Says, Will Result in Deficit by That Amount

Washington, April 14 (AP)—President Truman indicated today that he expects the government will run a billion dollars in the red on this year's operations.

In a news conference discussion, he said a special $600,000,000 appropriation he has asked for the veterans administration will increase this fiscal year's deficit by that amount.

That money was asked by Congress only last Monday. Prior to making it, Mr. Truman had estimated that government income in the present fiscal year—ending July 1—would be $599,700,000 less than its spending.

The $600,000,000 was asked because G.I. benefits, particularly unemployment payments, are costing more than was anticipated when this year's budget was drawn up. The House has approved the fund, but the Senate has not yet voted on it.

The in-the-red prospect has already brought fresh talks among tax experts in Congress of what to do.

Two top Democratic tax managers in the House said Congress "should have the courage to increase taxes" if the only alternative is a government deficit.

"It would be a disservice to the country," said Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.), "to return to deficit financing." Doughton, chairman of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, voiced hope a tax boost will not be necessary, however.

"I fear we will put a bigger tax load on our economy than it will be able to carry," he said. "I'm alarmed about it."

At the same time a top Democratic leader, who asked that he not be quoted directly, told reporters he believes it will be extremely difficult to pass anything like the $400,000,000 general tax increase President Truman is insisting on.

Moreover, the threat of a tax cut—instead of an increase—developed in the Senate Finance Committee.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Calif.) sought to tack to the House-approved omnibus bill to repeal bill an amendment cutting excise taxes on such things as fur coats, jewelry, luggage, light bulbs and communications—to their 1942 levels.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) estimated such a cut would reduce revenues by $1,500,000,000.

Disability Bill Signed By Dewey

Miss Donlon Estimates Cost to Employers and Employees Annually at $90,000,000

Taps Pay Rolls

Money Will Be Paid Weekly; Will Not Exceed 30 Cents

Albany, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—A controversial plan to provide sickness disability benefits to an estimated 6,000,000 workers in New York will go into effect July 1, 1950.

The Condon-Mallier bill establishing the program was signed yesterday by Governor Dewey. He called the law a "most important achievement."

One of Dewey's major legislative proposals, it creates a system of benefit payments to employees during periods of illness or disability not connected with their jobs.

Miss Mary H. Donlon, chairman of the state Workmen's Compensation Board which will administer the program, estimated the annual cost to employers and employees would be between $90,000,000 and $100,000,000 divided about equally.

Miss Donlon said her organization would begin immediately to draft regulations explaining to employers how to conduct the plan. She said a staff would be assembled to handle the work, but did not estimate how many persons would be required.

The law was sponsored by Assemblyman Lee B. Mallier of Cornwall-on-Hudson and Sen. William F. Condon of York, both Republicans.

Under its terms workers will receive 50 per cent of their weekly wages up to a maximum of $25, no more than 13 weeks a year. The minimum payment will be $10, weekly.

The program will be financed through employer and employee contributions. Beginning July 1, 1950, employers will contribute one-half of one per cent of their wages, not to exceed 30 cents a week. Employees will bear the remainder of the cost over employee contributions.

When the introduced the proposal Mallier estimated that employer payments would approximate equal those paid by employees. In signing the bill, Dewey asserted in a memorandum that "the cost to the employer, while not limited, is not apt to exceed 30 cents per week per employee."

Participating workers also become eligible for benefits after July 1, 1950.

In order to accumulate funds to allow start of payments, on that date employers will contribute a maximum of six cents a week from Jan. 1 to June 30, 1950. Employers will pay equal amounts.

The law gives employers a choice of using the State Insurance Fund, private insurance carriers or company "self-insured" plans. In view of this, Miss Donlon said, probably only about half of the total amount paid under the program would be handled by the state.

The Associated Industries of New York State, Inc., a manufacturers' association which opposed the proposal, estimated that ap-

Gubitchev's Trial To Be Held May 2, Despite Protest

U.N. Employee Declares Arrest Is Political; Denies Connection to Girl's Case

New York, April 14 (AP)—A Russian engineer accused of trying to get U. S. defense secrets was ordered today to stand trial May 2, despite his vigorous protest that he has diplomatic immunity.

Federal Judge Alfred C. Cox fixed the date after hearing a statement by Valentin A. Gubitchev, the engineer, on his alleged immunity status.

Gubitchev, 32, who was an employee of the United Nations, said "I consider this so-called case a provocation of the Department of Justice and the F.B.I. for certain political purposes."

The Russian was arrested by the F.B.I. last month with Judith

Diplomatic Moves Are Considered by Truman, Acheson

Washington, April 14 (AP)—President Truman indicated today that he and Secretary of State Acheson are considering a number of top diplomatic changes in Europe.

In addition to the expected transfer of Adm. Alan G. Kirk from Brussels to Moscow, these may include replacements for Ambassadors Jefferson Caffery at Paris and Lewis Douglas at London.

At his news conference, Mr. Truman was asked whether he intends to change ambassadors to either France or Belgium. He replied that he and the secretary of state are discussing ambassadorships, and that appointments will be announced when they are decided upon.

He had nothing to say on questions about the prospective appointment of Ambassador Kirk to Moscow, succeeding Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who now is commanding the First Army in New York.

Actually a large number of important changes are expected in coming weeks. According to well informed speculation these include the reassignment of Ambassador Caffery to some new post, possibly Cairo, in the event that Stanton Griffiths is shifted from that job.

Caffery may be replaced by David K. Bruce, presently in Paris for the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Other expected changes include: Acceptance of Douglas' resignation in two or three months, depending somewhat on the outcome of an injury suffered when a fish hook caught him in an eye.

E.R.P. Aides Say Effort Has Chance

Feeling of Quiet Hope Has Gained; See 40-60 Per Cent Life Blood

Has Cost Billions

Total Expense May Be 17 Billions Before Mid-1952

(Daniel De Luce has covered many of the most important news stories of the last decade in Europe and Asia. Note, after a sojourn through Germany, France and Scandinavia, he is looking into E.R.P. results and prospects. A.P. Bureaus throughout Europe are collaborating in gathering information. This is the first of De Luce's E.R.P. stories for this newspaper. Others will follow from time to time.)

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Paris, April 14 (AP)—Men on the inside of the European Recovery Program claim it now has a 40 to 60 per cent chance of long-range success.

A year ago, they saw only a 20 per cent chance. But they say their feeling of cautious optimism is growing.

The European Recovery Program—E.R.P.—has already cost the United States five billion dollars since it was started April 3, 1948.

The total cost may reach 17 billion dollars before the program is completed in mid-1952.

The payoff hoped for is nothing less than this: The successful evolution of diverse nations to a self-supporting European unity, which will foster economic well-being and virtue democracy for all of them.

More simply, the payoff might, with the impetus of the Atlantic Treaty, be a kind of United States of western Europe.

Only a gypsy fortune-teller could pretend to know now whether western Europe will ultimately reach this objective. The E.R.P. is aiming in this direction, is strictly a gamble.

But in short-range activities, the E.R.P. is less uncertain. Judged on factual results month by month during its brief life, the E.R.P. is accomplishing a good many of the urgent tasks which its backers claimed it would accomplish.

Some Failures Cited

Some failures are already chalked up against the E.R.P., and others are impending. But contrasted with its inability to do the impossible is its record of doing, or nearly doing, very difficult things.

The E.R.P. seems little understood. Yet it is a public project whereby 140,000,000 Americans have begun to give as much as 17 billion dollars for the benefit of 270,000,000 Europeans.

Don't confuse the E.R.P. with U.N.R.R.A., which ran soup kitchens after the war. Or with lend-lease, which simply delivered U.S. goods worth of American production, mostly armaments, to foreign nations with a minimum of red tape.

The E.R.P. involves many operations, but most of all, it is investment banking. It furnishes dollars to stimulate and expand European

Dewey Trip Item Gets No Comment

Albany, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—Governor Dewey's office refused today to confirm or deny a report that Dewey was planning a trip to Europe next month.

James C. Hagerty, Dewey's press secretary, said there was "nothing to say" on the report, which appeared in the Washington column of a New York newspaper (John O'Donnell, Daily News).

Hagerty also was mum on a report in the same column that the 1948 Republican presidential nominee would seek the U. S. Senate seat now held by the ailing Robert F. Wagner, Democrat. Wagner's term expires at the end of next year.

U. S. Stands Ready To Study 3-Power Talks With Soviets

Will Be Willing to Discuss Lifting of Blockade, Resumption of Parleys

Washington, April 14 (AP)—The United States stood ready today to receive—and consider jointly with Britain and France—any proposal Russia might make for lifting the Berlin blockade and renewing four power talks on Germany.

The western powers are now in the strongest position they have attained since the start of the cold war. In view of this it appeared they would require negotiations to be undertaken at the outset, at least, largely on their own terms if Russia should come forward with a surprise proposal.

The western powers, as reaffirmed yesterday by Secretary of State Acheson, are simply that the Soviets must lift the blockade unconditionally prior to resumption of four power discussions on Germany as a whole.

Acheson made a cautiously worded comment at his news conference yesterday which officially emphasized the Republican position that communications for any proposal from the Russians are open if Moscow wants to use them.

At the same time he said he had nothing to add on previous policy declarations about lifting the blockade and he could not appropriately comment on any proposal.

Crowe Takes Agents to Cache For $49,122 of Stolen Funds

New York, April 14 (AP)—Led to a lonely, rain-swept cemetery by an indicted bank executive, F.B.I. agents last night dug up $49,122 cash he buried beside his grandmother's coffin.

Discovery of the hidden money left only $13,000 still not recovered out of the $883,650 cash and bonds that Richard H. Crowe looted from his bank's vault.

He led federal agents to the hiding place after a two-hour talk with his wife and attorney.

A thick fog hung over the isolated Staten Island cemetery as federal agents shoveled under rain-soaked beams from portable floodlights and flashlights.

The cash was found in a metal box, buried about a foot deep just behind a seven-foot granite tomb-

Davis, Swarthout, Other Sutoff Aides Have Former Jobs

The appointment of B. S. Anderson to the Kingston Chevrolet dealership was officially announced today by executives of Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors.

Anderson has been appointed to the dealership to succeed Colonial City Chevrolet, Inc., which was formerly operated by the late Roy M. Sutliff. The new dealership will open officially on April 22 under the name of "Bev. Anderson Chevrolet, Inc.," and will be located at 37 O'Neil street.

In taking over the Chevrolet dealership in this city, Anderson will have associated with him most of the staff of the former Colonial City Chevrolet. Mrs. Hazel D. Baker who has been secretary of the previous dealership will continue in a similar capacity with Anderson as will Burton J. Davis, service manager; John Swarthout, parts manager, and others who have been associated with the Chevrolet dealership for many years past.

For the present the firm will occupy the premises at 37 O'Neil street where there is a 9,000 square foot service and repair station with an adjoining building 30 by 25 which was used as a body shop. The premises were recently purchased by the Canfield Supply Company as quarters for their offices and sales rooms during the time the Broadway crossing elimination program is under way and their building on Broadway will be subject to inconveniences. Anderson will occupy the premises under a one-year lease.

Sales headquarters as well as a complete service and parts operation will be handled for the present from the one location at 37 O'Neil street.

The present service station is being equipped with the latest in tool equipment, the parts department is being thoroughly revamped and it is anticipated that everything will be in readiness for an official opening on April 22.

In talking with Anderson today he made known the fact that he is planning to erect a new and modern sales and service center at the expiration of his present lease.

Anderson was born in Kansas and spent his early life in California where he attended preparatory school and later college at Oregon State. He entered the automobile business in Pittsburgh in 1917, and was associated with the retail automobile business for 17 years. During the past five years he was an executive of one of the automobile manufacturing firms and resided in Birmingham, Mich., a suburb of Detroit. He has sold his home there and will establish his residence in Kingston.

Talked Politics

Washington, April 14 (AP)—President Truman said today that he had no intention of being the subject of his conference yesterday with Paul Fitzpatrick, state Democratic chairman. He gave that reply when asked at his news conference what was the purpose of Fitzpatrick's White House call. Gunning, Mr. Truman added that as is usual, when he talks with a Democratic chairman the talk centered around whether there are any good jobs loose in government.

Holy Week Services

Rondout Presbyterian
An altar set of Calvary cross and candlesticks, along with new sets of altar, pulpit and lectern interpendia, will be received from the donors, members of the congregation, by the clerk of session and presented to the minister for dedication as a part of the Maundy Thursday evening celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Communion this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the Rondout Presbyterian and Wurts Street Baptist Church. This has been announced by Raymond H. VanValkenburgh, executive elder of session.

The minister and congregation of the Trinity Methodist Church, in accordance with annual custom, will participate in this Maundy Thursday celebration of Holy Supper, the Rev. Mr. Killinger joining Dr. Cain as a celebrant. Special Communion music as arranged by the director, Mrs. Rachel Smith, will include the prelude, Benediction, by Harselt; the anthem, "O Holy Jesus," by T. Wolff-Grant, and the solo, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked," O'Hara, sung by Miss Betty LaTour. The congregation will join in singing certain ancient hymns of the church. Christian disciples are invited to participate in this service of worship in the church.

St. James Church
A Maundy Thursday service of Holy Communion will be held at St. James Methodist Church, corner of Fair and Pearl streets, tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

The service will be conducted and new members welcomed into the church by the pastor, the Rev. Merrill C. Johnson. The sanctuary choir will sing the offertory, "O Saviour of the World," by Goss.

Redeemer Church
The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Wurts and Rogers streets, will hold its second Holy Week Communion service tonight at 7:45. At that time, the Rev. David C. Guise, pastor of Redeemer, will administer the first Communion to the members of the 1949 confirmation class who were confirmed on Palm Sunday. At this evening's service, a class of older young people and adults will be received by letter of transfer and confirmation.

The regular service will be conducted with a Maundy Thursday meditation by the pastor. Those who wish to come for the worship only may leave the church during the singing of the hymn preceding the Order for Holy Communion.

Fair Street Reformed
The traditional Maundy Thursday celebration of the sacrament of Holy Communion will be conducted by candlelight in the Fair Street Reformed Church tonight at 7:30. The service will conclude with the fourth century "Office of Tenebrae" symbolizing the desertion of the disciples after the first Lord's Supper. Six of the elders of the church will read the desertions and extinguish the symbolic candles. Those elders acting will be Herbert V. W. Darow, Frederick Hoffman, C. Effingham Burnett, Addison A. Schulz, Barton L. Haver and Hubert Hoderath.

On Good Friday from 12 until 3 p. m., the hours of the Cross will be kept in the sanctuary of the Fair Street Church. The seven meditations will be conducted by the Rev. William McVey, the Rev. Arthur Oudemool, the Rev. Daniel L. Haynes, the Rev. Raymond Pontier, the Rev. William C. Cain, the Rev. John Dykstra, and the pastor of the Fair Street Church, the Rev. J. Dean Dykstra. At this service, the choir will sing the cantata "Calvary" by Vessel, Mrs. Elmer Nathan and Mrs. Gustav Tallour will sing the solo parts.

At tonight's service the choir will sing the choral sections of the communion office. Mrs. Nathan will sing the concluding solo. A mixed quartet also will sing. Visitors are welcome to attend these Holy Week services.

Clinton Avenue
The Holy Communion service and reception of new members will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Clinton Avenue Methodist Church. The church will receive a group of 48 new members. The Rev. William R. Beckmann will be assisted at the communion service by Hilday A. Miner and Edgar B. Schepmoos. Communion stewards are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelder.

First Presbyterian
The communion service and reception of new members at First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, will be held Good Friday at 8 p. m. The Rev. William J. McVey, pastor will give a communion meditation. Music will be under the supervision of Miss Edna Merrihew. William J. McVey, Jr., will sing "There is a Green Hill Far Away" by Gounod; and the youth and senior choirs will sing "Could Ye Not Watch With Me?" by Stainer with Chester Miller, Jr., singing the incidental solos. Organ music will include "Evensong" by Schumann and Chorale by Bach.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, April 14—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Littell of Orange, N. J., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Terwilliger.

The senior choir of the Reformed Church will meet at the church tonight immediately following the Holy Communion service.

Mrs. Nellie Hoffman who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Snook has returned to her home in Ravena.

Mrs. Frank Bailey, Mrs. Lester E. Sanford and Mrs. Donald Tinnie attended the tea at the county health office in Kingston Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hogan, Jr., have announced the birth of a daughter, Patricia Ann, born at the Kingston Hospital on Monday.

Mrs. Donald Tinnie attended the public health nursing committee's meeting of presidents in Kingston.

Miss Schiza, director of public health, nursing, was the guest speaker.

The Methodist Church will hold an Easter dawn service Sunday beginning at 6:30 a. m. Breakfast will follow in the church house.

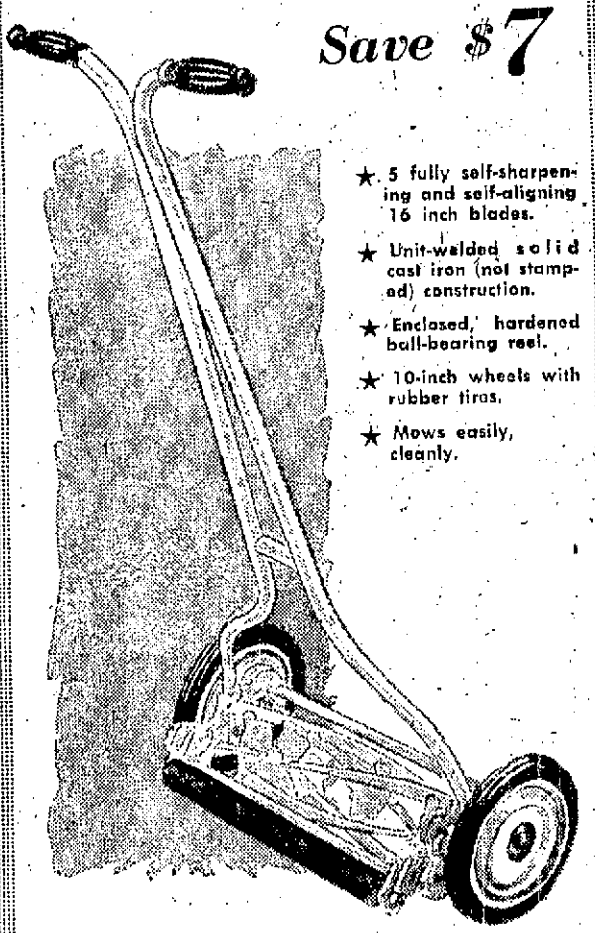

Forum on Crime
A forum for the study and prevention of crime, believed to be the first ever conducted by an American university, will be held in Columbia University's McMillin Theater, Saturday, May 7. The forum topic will be "Crime in Today's Society." The agenda will cover two principal questions, what is known about crime today, and what can be done about it. Participants will be leading authorities in the fields of psychiatry, law, biology, sociology, penology, mental hygiene and education.

A recent check of Naval aircraft engines "canned" at the end of the war showed them to be in perfect condition.

New York, April 14 (AP)—Smashing of a racket, in which valuable pieces of mail were diverted to a bogus address, was reported today by U. S. postal authorities.

Twelve persons were under arrest, one of them a postal clerk.

Police and federal agents yesterday raided what they called a "dummy store" and recovered $50,000 worth of merchandise they said had been diverted to the store in the mails.

The clerk, Nathan Tokofsky, who worked as a mail handler at Pennsylvania station, was accused of sidetracking the parcels by pasting new address labels over the original ones. A charge of theft from the mails, was lodged against him.

He and another man, Max Friedman, 28, were arrested this week. Friedman, who allegedly signed for the packages when they were delivered at the "dummy store" was charged with receiving stolen property.

Postal authorities said ten others were arrested earlier in the course of a three-month investigation of articles lost in the mails. The goods recovered yesterday—mostly furs, nylon stockings and silk wearing apparel—accounted for half the total amount of goods reported missing in the last two months, officials said.

Bartenders Will Help

New York, April 14 (AP)—Although selling drinks is their business, New York bartenders here going to help advertise that drinking can be bad. They'll put up signs next month, saying: "You can drink! Help the alcoholic who can't. Alcoholism is a disease." The signs, to be placed over contribution containers, are part of a $100,000 fund-raising drive by the National Committee for Education on Alcoholism.

Laidlaw Is Improving

Arthur J. Laidlaw, superintendent of schools, who is a patient at Flower Fifth Avenue Hospital, New York, is improving, according to word received from Mrs. Laidlaw. If Superintendent Laidlaw's condition continues to improve, he may be able to return to his home next week, it was said today.

Newburgh Man, 88, To Be Wed Easter

Newburgh, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—At the ripe old age of 88, William Schuhmann has decided to take a bride. But there will be no honeymoon.

"I'm not as young as I used to be and I seem to get tired easily," the white-haired retired builder said yesterday. "I wanted to plan a honeymoon trip to California. But I guess I'm not strong enough for that."

Schuhmann said he had the license and will marry his housekeeper, 68-year-old Charlotte Sandstrom, Easter Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene.

Miss Sandstrom has kept house for Schuhmann in his two-story frame home since his first wife died eight years ago after 56 years of marriage.

PLATTEKILL

Plattekill, April 13—The Plattekill Mothers' Club met Tuesday, April 12, at the school, to conduct its regular meeting. Special hobbies were shown and demonstrated. It was announced that Dorinda Upright, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Upright, was the first prize winner in the recent magazine subscription contest, proceeds of which were used in payment of the new moving picture machine. Dorinda, a first-grader, sold $78.50 worth of subscriptions.

The Plattekill Home Bureau met recently in the Plattekill school. Due to illness, Miss Everette Parsons, Ulster County Home Bureau demonstration agent, was not present to give the scheduled talk on "Mental Health." Mrs. George Sisti gave a demonstration on flower arrangement. Mrs. Finley Green gave an exhibition of work done in the draperies, curtains and re-furnishing furniture projects. Mrs. Charles Everett reported on work being done on a scrap-book for Achievement Day. Mrs. Kleeman and Mrs. Benedict displayed rolls and sweet breads, which were sold and the amount added to the local Bureau treasury fund. Colored slides were shown by Mrs. Margaret Foster, after which refreshments were served by the committee.

The third and fourth grades of the Plattekill school recently presented their assembly program. It exemplified the school subjects and activities through a play, songs and dances. The social studies class was represented by a song "From Sheep to Sweater" dealing with the wool unit. "Through the Stars Looking-Glass" was the song used for the science class. Gayle Wager and Alice McMillan sang a duet "Subtraction." A just-for-fun song, "The Tree in the Wood" was nicely done by the group. The physical education class was introduced by a song called "Quite Different." Joan Cook singing the solo parts. This was followed by folk dances. In the Norwegian folk dance, the following dancers participated: Bette Decker, Alex Dembroski, Bernice Kalisky and John Thorsen; Joan Cook and Gayle Wager; Phyllis DelPriore and Alice McMillan. In the Hungarian dance, the dancers were Lucy Martino and Merlin Countryman; Anne Langlitz and Arnold Hansen; Elizabeth Murphy and William Dunn; Ethel Purdy and Robert Varella; Sylvia Bilyou and Gregory Van Duser; Albina and Norman Scofield; Nancy O'Grady and Anthony Ferraiuolo. "The Alphabet" was a play representing reading and spelling. Members of the cast were Joan Cook, John Thorsen, Gayle Wager, Merlin Countryman, Alice McMillan, Bette Decker, Alex Dembroski, Anne Langlitz and Maria Marks.

Special services will be held in the Plattekill Methodist Church on Easter Sunday, April 17. The regular order of worship will be replaced by an Easter message by the Rev. Marian Woods. An Easter cantata, sung by members of the combined choruses of the Plattekill and Rossville Methodist Churches. Services at Plattekill

Oil Sprays

Geneva, N. Y.—Oil sprays applied as near to the hatching time of the eggs as safely to the trees will permit have proved most efficient in the control of the European red mite on apples. In tests in commercial orchards by entomologists at the Experiment Station here this meant delaying the application of the oil spray until the green-up stage when a 2 per cent "superior" oil gave 97 per cent kill of the eggs. In the 1948 season this application was made six days before the eggs hatched. Comparable results were also obtained with 0.5 per cent concentration of DN-289, one of the new dinitro compounds.

GADGETS ARE TAKING OVER

Every now and then we get an uncomfortable feeling that the robots are after us. That is old-fogeyism, and silly to boot. People have probably been complaining about over-mechanization since the day when some speed-mad genius invented the wheel and started the whole thing rolling.

But we still get that feeling. The latest twinge came after reading about a new device that answers the phone for you when you are out. A wire recorder permits the callers to leave a message, and also informs them of the obvious fact that you aren't at home. We never did figure out what lifts the phone off the cradle and puts it back.

Speaking of telephones, there is now an electric brain that figures out phone bills. The folks who use it say it never overcharges. Occasionally charges you too little, though.

There is also an electric brain that plays chess. If that is too deep for the merely human opponent, it will condescend to play gin rummy.

Chicagoans with television sets can choose from a selection of movies, call the phone company and announce their choice—and there it is, right in the living room.

They're now boiling water, washing clothes and lighting pipes by sound waves. Highway cops are pinching speeders with the help of radar. More and more everyday activities are graduating to the "look-no-hands" category where things work in a way that is beyond the average comprehension.

No doubt this is all for the best. At least, the people who invented all these things must have been trying to make life easier for their fellow man as well as make money for themselves. But we wonder what is going to happen to the subconscious lives of a lot of people as their every day world grows more electronic and atomic.

There are a lot of normal, intelligent human beings who are baffled by any mechanism much more complicated than a screwdriver. They are mystified enough by things as they are today. We worry sometime at what will happen to their egos in a future where invisible, incomprehensible forces wait on them hand and foot.

The adjustment isn't going to be quick or easy. First the human race must get human behavior to keep pace with scientific achievement if it is to survive. Then will come the problem of reconciling average human ingenuity with specialized human genius.

Until the adjustment is made we foresee a rough time for many horse-and-buggy—or at least "Model-T"—minds while they are learning to live surrounded by mysterious, wonder-working gadgets. Inferiority complexes, we fear, will be thicker than television antennae.

That man with the "Model-T" mind won't be able to discuss his phone bill with the electrical accountant that totted up the figures. He'll shy away from a friendly game of gin with a box of tubes and wires that can beat him any time he wants to pick up the cards.

Affluent breadwinners who can afford servants today are cowed enough by their cooks as it is. Think of their frustrated future when they start complaining about the way the sound waves brewed the coffee or try to bawl out the radar for burning the roast.

CHANGE OF MIND

"I should have left the party in August," The writer of these words is Rexford G. Tugwell, Franklin D. Roosevelt brain-truster, former governor of Puerto Rico, and chairman of the platform committee at the Henry Wallace Progressive party convention last July. He was talking about that party.

Writing in "The Progressive", the old organ of the La Follette family and not connected with the Wallace movement, Tugwell says that the Communists were too active in the Wallace fight, and that he himself should have dropped out. He suggests that had other followers of F.D.R. taken part in the Wallace movement, they might

BIRTH AND RESURRECTION

Two perennial events occur this week which are landmarks in our civilization: Passover and Easter. Both are identified with spring, with the renewal of life.

Passover marks the liberation of the Jewish people from enslavement to the Egyptians. The Egyptian civilization was then the greatest in all the world. The Jews were descended, according to their traditions, from Terah, the Chaldean, whose son, Abraham, a Monotheist, destroyed his father's idols, left home, and became the progenitor of a new race whose sole reason for existence and differentiation is a belief in one God, an omniscient, omnipotent, moral God.

And the descendants of Abraham found their way into Egypt, the center of the universe. After a period of prosperity, they were enslaved. Under the leadership of Moses they rebelled, risked battle, sea and wilderness for freedom.

Moses faced the problems of his people realistically. He knew that any people who had lived amid the wealth and the luxury of a slave civilization would soon revert to slavery. Liberty is a costly prize. Difficult to earn, liberty is almost impossible to hold. It requires constant vigilance and sacrifice. Its essence is faith in God.

In the course of their history, the Jews always believed in a Messiah and were everlastingly seeking him—as a person or as an idea. Jesus presented himself at a time when the Jewish state was in decay and the Jewish religion was overlaid with rules, regulations and ritual. At that time, Judea had become a puppet state in the Roman empire. Its rulers, officials and even priests obeying the Roman, forgetting not only liberty but God.

Jesus was ridiculed, betrayed and crucified. Now, according to the gospels, the miracle of resurrection occurred. He died but they saw him. He died by they heard him. Life is never stilled. Eternally it renews itself. Through the veins of everything that lives, flows the new life—the desire, the impulse to reproduce, to grow, to reach to the fringes of God.

That is the resurrection that is endless and that is the spirit of Easter, which commemorates not the birth but the death and resurrection of Jesus.

And one can stop at the religious aspects of this account and let it end there. But there is something more that we need to think of in these days when there is so much suffering and pain and death upon this earth. Are we to believe that this misery will never end? We Americans are so comfortable that we hardly realize how horrible and bleak the lives of others have become in so few years. And it is hard for us, whose children have so much, to realize that millions of little children have so little. If we believe—believe—that that is all that our civilization is, that that is all that we have as a people, then we must be as hopeless for us as it is for those who are in the center of the ugly vortex.

But we do and must believe in the eternal resurrection. And of that, Easter is the symbol. Not the Easter bonnet, nor the Easter lily, nor the Easter music are the symbols, but Easter itself is the symbol of the eternal resurrection—of eternal hope in the human liberty which comes to man, from God.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Bayton, M.D.

GROUP TREATMENT OF EPILEPTICS

It is not hard to understand why the average employer does not want to hire an epileptic. During an epileptic seizure, the epileptic is not only a danger to himself, but also often a danger to his fellow employees.

However, all forms of employment need not be of a dangerous nature and, where the patient and his fellow employees know that an attack may occur, slight precautions on the patient's part and on the part of other employees render it safe for many epileptics to earn a living.

As a number of returned soldiers, sailors, and airmen have such mental and emotional disturbances that epileptic attacks have resulted, everything must be done to restore them insofar as possible to their best physical and mental condition. This is called rehabilitation.

In the "American Journal of Psychiatry," Drs. A. L. Deutsch and J. Zimmerman report a plan for the rehabilitation of veterans with convulsive (epileptic) disorders. As a part of this program, the material discussed included the history of epilepsy, causes of epilepsy, various types of seizures (fits), the modern treatment, the hereditary factors associated with the disease, and the question of marriage of epileptic persons. The second half hour was devoted to a discussion with Dr. Deutsch and Zimmerman as friendly mediators and advisers.

Then further sessions were taken over by representatives from the Vocational Rehabilitation Section, who advised the group as to the various occupational skills and aptitudes which were necessary in future employment. Further meetings were held with members of the patients' families so they could learn how they could help in relieving the anxieties and tensions resulting from the family's natural overconcern.

As the family was brought into the discussion, many of the patient's anxieties and concern about their relatives was reduced.

This common sense method of handling a condition that was formerly so terrifying is bringing excellent results.

Attacks of epilepsy may be very greatly lessened and even prevented by more attention to diet. have prevented the Communists from taking control. Because the Communists did so, he is content with the election of President Truman, and apparently is to be counted out of future Wallace campaigns.

Tugwell was the most conspicuous Rooseveltian to follow Wallace. His defection is another blow to a party which is not in a position to stand many.

SCHOOL SABOTAGE

One of the most puzzling things in many a day is the disclosure that an organized effort has been made, over an area covering several states, to discourage girls studying for the teaching profession by means of letters telling them they were preparing for a thankless job. It is beyond comprehension that anyone literate enough to be able to write a letter would participate in an attack on the education system, which is so clearly essential to just about all the things in life which Americans consider worth while.

A time may come, says a neighbor, when nobody works, but everybody just goes fishing. In that case, would boys play truant from school in order to weed the garden?

It All Comes Out of the Same Pocket, Anyway!

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington—One of the cleverest lobbies in Washington is the American Enterprise Association, financed by big business, which puts a nutshell analysis of all legislation on the desks of about 400 congressmen every morning. Obviously, there is no better way to influence legislation than by interpreting legislation to a harassed congressman who doesn't have time to study every bill for himself.

This lobby is supported by Robert Lund, past president of the National Association of Manufacturers, and by officials of Johns-Manville, Chemical Bank and Trust, Guaranty Trust, American Steel Foundries, Inland Steel, Chrysler, Bristol-Myers, Brown and Sharpe, United Carr Fastener, and others. It also has the support of some congressmen, including "Coolidge" Cox of Georgia, who claims credit for selling the idea to his Mercer University classmate, Eugene S. Eason, head of the Guaranty Trust Co. "It was all my idea," says the Georgia congressman, who is one of the most reactionary members of the House.

Others who helped inspire the association were John Brown, head of Johns-Manville, and Jackson of Chemical Bank and Trust; Congressman Dan Reed of New York, Roy Woodruff of Michigan; and the late J. Frederick Richardson, the first manager of the Washington office.

Lobby Moves Into Capitol
After the Republicans took over Congress in 1946, Congressman Dan Reed induced House G.O.P. leaders to set up a coordinator's office, supposed to do research for members of Congress, a tax-financed out of the public funds.

Lo and behold! Who do you think was moved into this key job? The representative of private business—J. Frederick Richardson. Hitherto, Richardson had been working on the outside as the representative of acknowledged business groups. But now, thanks to Congressman Reed, he moved right inside the halls of Congress and was put on the government payroll. Furthermore, Richardson brought with him the same men who had been working for the American Enterprise Association.

Came last November's election, however, and the victorious Democrats moved this amazing lobby out. Thereupon it became necessary for the American Enterprise Association to get some non-partisan political collaboration. They did this by making a deal with the law firm of Secretary of the Navy John Sullivan, a true and loyal Democrat. Sullivan's law firm was hired to analyze legislation and write the daily reports for Congressmen.

Enter Navy Secretary's Law Firm
The Secretary of the Navy, sensitive about any connection with the lobby, is very emphatic that he is no longer with his law firm.

"Let's get one thing clear," he snapped, when queried. "I am no longer in the firm. My name is not on the stationery. My name is not on the door."

Sullivan admitted, however, that Malcolm Hardgrove, now Washington representative of the lobby, had talked to him about various matters. Hardgrove is the man who gets information from Speaker Joe Martin's office by occasionally slipping $20 to a Negro messenger, who plays close to the real estate lobby and admits that he interviews 20 to 50 Congressmen a day.

"How well do you know Hardgrove?" the Secretary of the Navy was asked.
"I've seen him three or four times," he replied.

Later the same question was put to Hardgrove.
"John has been a close friend of mine for years," he said.

"But he says he has only seen you three or four times."
"Well, that's true," Hardgrove fumbled. "I've just seen him a couple of times."

"You mean you've been close friends for years and you've only seen him a couple of times?"
"I can see that we're not getting anywhere," Hardgrove blurted and hung up.

It may be significant, however, that when the Secretary of the Navy telephones Hardgrove's office, which he does from time to time, he does not ask for "Mr. Hardgrove," nor does he even use his name, "Malcolm." He asks for "Mal."

Another liberal Democrat who was suckered into endorsing the analytical service is Senator Francis Myers of Pennsylvania, who explained that he had done so on the recommendation of Congressman Priest. He said, however, that he might send out another letter, warning of the facts uncovered by this column.

Careful examination of the legislative analyses shows that the digests of laws themselves are fairly nonpartisan. But along with the digests are sent a series of carefully slanted questions which are asked each legislator.

Along with his digests and questions, the lobby sends out pamphlets on economic problems, but seems to confine itself to circulating only the views of big business. Propaganda by the Tax Foundation and the Foundation for Economic Education are featured in the Association's office.

Hardgrove, incidentally, does some work on the side for the big-business-financed Foundation for Economic Education.

James O'Connor Roberts, who used to write the digests, claims they were impartial while he was doing them, but when Sinclair Weeks, former treasurer of the Republican National Committee, took over the presidency, he quit.

"I was told I could no longer have control of the questions," said Roberts. "They were bound to become slanted as I saw it."

So he resigned. And that is the subtle systems devised by certain big business firms to influence the men who write the laws for the rest of the nation.

So They Say...

It looks as though we are getting a good insurance policy against World War III.

—Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. (R), of Massachusetts, commenting on the North Atlantic Pact.

The Communists feel they have the appeal for the underprivileged of the world. I think we are going to have to show that the United States does offer to the mass of the people the great opportunity.

For individual effort we have to pay a heavy ransom in individual selfishness.

—Dr. C. W. De Kiewiet, Provost, Cornell University.

The peoples of the earth want freedom and justice. They do not want to be individuals without duties or automatons without rights. Communism denies them freedom. The aim should be unity, which comes by agreement; not unification, which is imposed by force.

Cannon's Statement on Use of Atom Bomb Against Russia Is Incredible, but Plain Language

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, April 14—It seems incredible, but there it is in plain language in the official record of congressional proceedings—A statement that the United States virtually expects to fight Russia and expects to win in less than 30 days by using the atomic bomb.

Up to now, the members of the armed services have been hesitant to mention Russia as the nation against which America's armament plans are designed. Now there is no hesitation at all in the debates in Congress.

Never before in American history has there been such bold speaking, as if Russia were the natural enemy and as if war was inevitable.

Thus are thoughts of war so congealed in the thinking of the world that any suggestions for peaceful adjustment become mere irritations to those who have made up their minds otherwise.

When the casualty lists start coming in and it is too late to figure out ways of prevention, the world bemoans the fact that civilization has failed to find a way to keep the peace.

The enemy is blamed and the nation which is the victim of enemy operations or reprisals considers that no blame can be attached to it.

The idea that Russia can be pulverized in 30 days from the air with the atomic bomb, as outlined by Representative Clarence Cannon, Democrat, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, is, of course, what air force enthusiasts have been saying. In effect, they have argued that funds for the army and navy were secondary. Mr. Cannon said that the army and navy were no longer primary and that Congress should cut the money which it contributes in long-range, land-based bombers.

This is the kind of talk that ruined the British navy and deprived it of an air arm and cost the lives of many thousands of Britons in World War II. No service and no weapons should be disparaged or the morale of any of the three services broken by such appraisals.

Here is a congressman, moreover, who is not the chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, yet he discusses future strategy with all the confidence of a military expert. Even the secretary of defense admits he is not sure about the strategy for the next war. Presumably the safety of the United States is to be vested now in the honest but uninformed opinions of members of Congress without regard to the deliberate judgment of the joint chiefs of staff of the United States. From a national defense standpoint this is an absurdity.

But what is even worse is that Congress is being asked to believe that a war with Russia is imminent and that the Soviets will fight the United States or provoke an attack even before they get the atomic bomb.

Simple logic would argue that, until Russia can retaliate with atomic bombs, there is little, if any, chance of war. Russia's behavior in Europe in a military way indicates weakness, rather than strength. She is trying hard to develop the atomic bomb, and competent opinion assumes she will have it in a few years. Until then, war cannot really be expected. The expenditure of as much as $15 billion a year or more on armament tends to impair the national economy of America, and the budget—a circumstance not unbecome to the Russians, who believe they can envisage the collapse of capitalism some day without firing a shot.

"The next war," says Representative Cannon, "must be won in the first three weeks. We must in that time pulverize every military center in Russia."

But Mr. Cannon forgets that in the last war air power did not pulverize Germany or Japan in 60 days—mostly because the enemy had air forces, too, and also dispersed its production facilities. Russia is a vast country and atomic bombs aren't manufactured by the thousands but probably are numbered in the hundreds. At the end of the last war, Secretary Stimson revealed, America had made exactly six bombs, and it cost at least $2,000,000,000 to do that job.

The idea that Russia will start a fight before she has the means of retaliation against American cities would not seem to be plausible. No nation courts disaster. Russia will wait for a military debate and order all her resources mobilized to get the atomic bomb manufactured as quickly as possible. There need be no war till then.

Then—when both sides have the atomic bomb—the threat to pulverize in 30 days will not be made as loudly. May be by that time atomic control will become a necessity, if civilization is not to perish.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

With the recent hospital fire and its many tragic deaths, the following item written some time ago by the late H. L. Van Deusen in "At Century Turn" has been called to my attention.

The loss of a single life, or an accident to any one of the 56 patients, the Kingston Hospital was damaged by fire on February 20, 1926.

"The fire broke out in the old building, near a chimney, and spread rapidly. It was at the noon hour, and thousands gathered at the scene to watch the flames fight the blaze."

"The patients were removed to safety with the help of the hospital nurses, firemen, doctors, policemen and volunteer workers. Mothers with newly born babies were removed to the nursing home, which that year was located in the house near the club house of the Knights of Columbus on Broadway."

One patient had just undergone an operation when the fire broke out and was still under the ether when she was removed to the Benedictine Hospital, where the larger number of patients were taken. She was astonished when she came out of the influence of the ether to find herself in another hospital later, June 4, 1926, on a Saturday evening, fire damaged the city hall to such an extent that it had to be rebuilt. At that time a number of firemen were hurt trying to save the city hall building. The most seriously injured was Captain Edward Albrecht, who suffered a broken leg, fractured ribs and had to be removed to the hospital.

The old fire alarm bell hung in the tower from heavy wooden uprights and as the fire reached the rafters the "fire bell" tolled its own death knell and plunged down through the burning building never to be rung again.

With the burning of the city hall went the Boy Scout radio station on the third floor which was never rebuilt. In 1927 Kingston could proudly boast of a radio station. I remember we could get it on our sets. I think at that time we used battery sets, and many had ear-phones.

I think, Saturday, April 27, 1929 the various city departments scattered throughout the city were being moved back into the remodeled city hall. The entire third floor which had been used for storage purposes mostly was turned into the fine Common Council chambers with office rooms on each side. (According to some old prints of the city hall, I see an entrance in the center, directly from the side-walk on Broadway. The stone wall being separated by stone steps.)

To Broadcast Passover

New York, April 14 (AP)—A special Jewish Passover drama will be presented Easter Sunday over the Columbia Broadcasting System network. Entitled "This Year Israel," the drama will star actress Paul Muni in the leading role. It will be heard from 4:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. (EST). The play will trace the observance of the Jewish ceremonial season over a period of 4,000 years.

Twenty and Ten Years Ago

April 14, 1929—An area storm included rain, hail and snow. Corporal L. DuBois were married here.

Mrs. W. Scott Haulenbeck died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred L. Anderson, in Catskill.

George A. Chase and Annie Ticefield, both of Chichester, were married in Phoenix.

April 14, 1939—Edmund W. Wakelee, a former resident of Ulster county, was named president of the Palisades Interstate Park Commission.

The local recreation department prepared to start its part-time park and playground program.

Kearn Foley, 82, a lifelong resident of Quarryville, died at his home.

Charles B. Skane was elected commander of Joyce-Schrick Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Questions—Answers

Q—What causes color?
A—The sensation of color is produced by a difference in wavelength of the light entering our eyes. The shortest waves give the sensation of violet. As they get longer, we see blue, green, orange, yellow or red. Still longer waves, which are invisible, are called infrared, while those shorter than violet are designated ultraviolet. An object appears colored because it absorbs certain wave-lengths and reflects others. If it reflects them all, we say it is white.

Q—How many species of lion are there?
A—Zoologists are agreed that there is only one species of lion existing at the present time, whether found in Africa or Asia.

Q—When did man begin to eat eggs?
A—Undoubtedly eggs were one of the original natural foods of the human race, and have been eaten for as long as the dawn of history. Nobody knows who first ate them.

Q—To what race did the ancient Egyptians belong?
A—The ancient Egyptians belonged to the Hamitic race, which takes its name from Ham, the second son of Noah.

Q—Who preceded Joseph Stalin as Soviet premier?
A—Stalin took the Soviet premiership from Vyacheslav M. Molotov on May 6, 1941.

X-disease? Control

Geneva, N. Y.—Prevention is the only cure of the "X-disease" of sour cherries, and prevention means destruction of the chokecherry, the only known source of infection of this virus disease. Malady has appeared in many cherry-growing areas in the state where it results in a marked falling off in yield. Removal of all chokecherries within a radius of 500 feet of the orchard has done much to reduce losses from a similar virus disease of peaches.

Cherry growers are therefore urged to hunt out and destroy all chokecherries in or near their plantings as a precautionary measure.

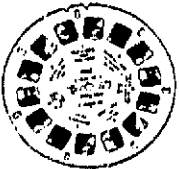

Shark Bites Bather

Tampico, Mex., April 14 (AP)—A shark, frightened from the sea by naval gunfire and depth charges, jumped up on Miramar Beach yesterday and bit a bather. Other bathers grabbed sticks and clubs and beat the shark to death before it could get back to the water. The injured man was hospitalized. The U. S. naval vessel John W. Weeks, six miles off shore, caused the trouble. It was demonstrating its guns and bombs for Mexican officials.

Mrs. McNabb Is To Address County
Republican Club

REBECCA McNABB

Mrs. Rebecca McNabb, of Schenectady, will address the Ulster County Women's Republican Club Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Governor Clinton Hotel, this city; Mrs. Vincent G. Connelly, president, said today. The public is invited.

Mrs. McNabb, who spoke here in February, 1948, is vice president of the State Federation of Women's Republican Clubs and a representative in the national federation, will be accompanied by Mrs. Lee Leland, of Schenectady, county Republican worker.

Mrs. McNabb has been assistant to Miss Jane H. Todd, acting State Republican leader; was 12 years the Schenectady county director of women's activities; New York State Fair, 1932 to 1935; director of women's activities, New York State Milk Publicity, 1935; president of the Schenectady County Women's Republican Club, 1931 and 1942 to 1944; judicial director, State Federation of Women's Republican Clubs, 1944 to 1946; recording secretary of the federation in 1945.

Among her non-political affiliations are grand matron, Order of the Eastern Star; trustee of the Ingersoll Memorial Home; and director of Community Chest, Schenectady.

Congress Expected to Act
Washington, April 14 (AP)—Congress is expected to act quickly next month on a bill lifting U. S. admission bars to additional thousands of Europe's displaced persons. A House Judiciary subcommittee yesterday completed work on a measure to liberalize the DP Act of 1948, eliminating allegedly discriminatory features and boosting the admission quota from the present 205,000 to a possible top of 400,000.

Two Automobiles Recovered Locally

Two automobiles were recovered last night shortly after they were reported stolen.

Emile Albert Exstrand, 71, Elmendorf street, reported at 9 p. m. that his car had been taken from in front of his home. It was found, the police reported, "by a citizen on West O'Reilly street near Wilbur avenue, hanging over a bank." This was 45 minutes after report of the theft. The car was removed by a wrecker. Ernest Perry of Perry's Taxi Service, reported at 9:23 p. m. that his auto had been taken from the rear of the taxi office on Broadway. Officer Walter Fitzgerald reported recovering the car at 9:32 p. m. behind the Holland Hotel. It had a damaged rear fender, the report said.

Duchess Is in England

London, April 14 (AP)—The Duchess of Windsor arrived from Paris today and went to a country estate, by-passing the royal palaces whose doors haven't opened for her since Edward VIII abdicated for her love. The former king, who came over from their Paris home a week ago, met the right ferry train at Waterloo station. He posed for photographers with the American-born duchess, then accompanied her by car to the home of their friend, the Earl of Dudley, at nearby Sunningdale. They plan to spend Easter there.

Bottled Gas Unit Was Exploded in Street Standard

A bottled gas unit for the blinker light at Washington avenue and North Front street exploded early Wednesday afternoon when the standard, which had recently been reinstalled at the intersection, was struck by an auto.

Officers Peter Camp and Louis Sapp Jr., who investigated, reported that the standard was struck by a car operated by Seymour Markowitz, of 3 Rogers street, who was headed south and turning left on Washington avenue at the time.

Firemen were summoned from Willwyck and Excelsior stations to quench a fire which followed the explosion.

A barricade and lanterns at a telephone company excavation at Broadway and Andrew street were struck and damaged by an auto last night.

A police report at 8:15 p. m. said that Lekoy J. Loeffler, 88 Newkirk avenue, reported that he was driving south on Broadway when he struck the barricade. He reported the auto damaged on its front.

TANKER WRECKED IN BAY COLLISION

A gaping hole in the 11,394-ton tanker, Pennsylvania Sun, marks the spot where it collided with the 7607-ton freighter, American Attorney, in Delaware Bay. Both ships caught fire after the collision, about midway between Cape May, N. J., and Philadelphia, Pa., but the tanker's crew brought the blaze under control to ward off a threatened explosion. Young Veteran Aids His Favorite Barber

New York, April 14 (AP)—A young veteran has given a Brooklyn barber a television set to boom his business. In return for eight years of free haircuts, shampoos and massages.

The donor, Samuel Bernstein, 26, has a motto—"live and help live." His favorite barber, Abe Chayet, had been losing business since a rival barber opened a shop across the street.

So Bernstein, putting his motto into practice, bought a television set for $425 and had it installed in Chayet's place.

In return, the barber agreed to give Bernstein a weekly shampoo (50 cents), a bi-weekly haircut (85 cents) and a bi-weekly massage (50 cents) until he has paid off the customer's investment with two per cent interest. (Bernstein shaves himself.)

In addition, Bernstein can watch the television—except when he's under the massage hot towels or shampoo suds.

"Now the place is packed," says barber Chayet.

Temple Emanuel
Services will be held in Temple Emanuel on Friday evening, at 7:45. Rabbi Bloom will preach on the theme, "Has American Jewry Finished Its Task for Israel?"—a comment on the relation of American Jewry to the new state. There will be no religious or Hebrew school on Sunday, as the Passover vacation is in progress. Hadassah will meet on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the social hall of the Temple. There will be a Passover service on Tuesday evening at 7:45 in the Temple.

Snowplow Wax
Snowplow wax, applied to plow moldboards, and wings with a spray gun, or an ordinary paintbrush, creates a hard, slick surface off which the snow slides easily. It prevents the so-called snow piling which means costly clearing delays.

trade and industry through normal commercial channels.

The dollars come out of the U. S. Treasury. At least 80 per cent of them are gifts to E.R.P. countries, with certain strings attached. The remainder are loans, requiring full repayment with 2½ per cent interest.

The E.R.P., as an investment banker, tries to make each of its dollars do the work of three or four. In a given country, it is always hoping to make a single dollar add a dollar to exports as well as a dollar to imports, trim a dollar off the national debt as well as add a dollar to capital investment.

Multiple Benefits
It sounds like financial alchemy, but the E.R.P. can point to many instances where its dollars provided multiple benefits.

The E.R.P. is actually controlled by something called the E.C.A., which double-checks the recovery programs submitted from something else called the O.E.E.C.

The Economic Cooperation Administration—E.C.A.—is an American governmental agency, headed by Paul G. Hoffman in Washington and W. Averell Harriman in Europe.

The Organization for European Economic Recovery—O.E.E.C.—is composed of representatives from 19 foreign states or areas, who by point planning, coordination and cooperation have appeared at times to act like a ministry of economics for western Europe.

E.C.A. and O.E.E.C. are the Siamese twins of E.R.P.

The immediate political purpose of the E.R.P., when it's articulated in April last year, was to check Communism. This has been done.

The half-core of Communism in such countries as France and Italy has not been cut back, but it has not grown. In other countries, like Norway and Denmark, follow-travelers have been forsaking the Moscow party line.

In no E.R.P. country is there the likelihood now that Communists could win governmental control by anything short of invasion by the Soviet army.

The immediate economic purpose of the E.R.P. was to sustain the postwar recovery drive of western Europe. This drive has been on the verge of collapse. By the end of 1948, with due credit to the E.R.P., western Europe's industrial production had risen 14 per cent above 1947. Another substantial production boost is in sight for 1949.

Western Europe's recovery is apparently progressing almost twice as fast now as it did after the First World War.

But insiders of the E.R.P. still keep their fingers crossed. Fundamental rearrangement of the economic activity of 270,000,000 Europeans must be far advanced by 1952, or their countries could collapse suddenly into another coma.

The economic hedge-podge of western Europe needs more than a verbal promise of unification. As the threat of an economic catastrophe lessens, nationalistic barriers and rivalries still require liquidation, but the will to do this is hard to sustain.

There is much to do and so little time. That is always a warning thought for the men who are trying to make the European Recovery Program a fact instead of a name.

TRAPPED IN FREAK ACCIDENT

Three railroad cars, which were derailed and fell from an overpass onto his car, trapped Joseph Mesmer, 29, in a freak accident in Depew, N. Y. Mesmer remained conscious during the two-and-a-half hours it took to effect his rescue. His leg was crushed, and later amputated. (NEA Telephoto) len, present counselor in the State Department, an important policy making job, to Paris as counselor of embassy.

Transfer of Wainworth Barber from directorship of the Division of Southern European Affairs in the State Department to Moscow as counselor of embassy.

Another post of great importance for which Mr. Truman and Acheson soon will have to find a man is the prospective new job of high commissioner in Germany. This job will be created when the western occupation powers switch from military to civilian control in Germany probably next summer.

Two of those who have been mentioned for the job are Ambassador Robert Murphy, chief of the German Affairs Office in the State Department, and John J. McCloy, president of the World Bank and former assistant secretary of war.

Ancient Carillon

The only ancient carillon in the New World, dating from the 17th century, is on the campus of Alfred University, in Allegany county, according to "New York State Vacationlands," published by the New York State Department of Commerce. Temporarily the bells are hung in a skeleton frame, not unlike the oil derricks of the area. They were cast by Peter Hemery, Belgian bell-maker, in 1674, and were used for more than two centuries on a wealthy European estate. When World War I threatened, the bells were hidden. In 1937, they were unearthed and brought to Alfred.

Sahloff Resigns His M. W. Vice-Presidency

Willard H. Sahloff, formerly of Kingston, was the last vice-president to resign from Montgomery Ward & Company, according to an announcement from Chicago, leaving Chairman Sewell Avery alone at the helm of the firm, plagued by a year of wrangling. Sahloff, a cousin of Robert Sahloff, of the advertising staff of The Freeman, declared that the constant turmoil in the management group of the company made his position entirely untenable. He said that under the circumstances it was impossible for him to conduct the operating division of the firm.

The latest wave of resignations has come with the annual board meeting less than two weeks away.

Resignation of Sahloff leaves the company with no president and no vice-presidents. Wilbur H. Norton, the president, resigned 10 months ago at the start of the turnover in company executive personnel.

We Are Being Gypped

BY FRANK TRIPP

This is the grumble of a taxpayer, made in behalf of the people of the State of New York. It is a kick on two counts, one new one and one old one. It has to do with more painless extraction of state income taxes.

Completely painless extraction of any kind of taxes would seem impossible, yet there are ways to kid the sufferer into a sort of acquiescent stupor. Not exactly make him like it but keep him fooled until he gets accustomed to dumping his last dollar into the public trough.

So far, family funds for sheer necessities have not been completely extorted to sustain the bureaus, chifforiers, commodores and Hottentots but the average man's fun money is down to where nothing but return of nickel beer and a five-cent cigar would let him afford many nights out.

The first gyppie won't concern everybody; not the unmarried and the foot free, just the ball and chain segment of society, the married ones, who still live together.

SUCH AS THESE pretty generally made out joint federal tax returns March 15th; then viewed the apparent saving with considerable glee. It was a new experience for New York State folks and, being prime suckers anyway, they set about to spend what they'd saved.

While they were picking out the new refrigerator their representatives in Albany were spending about a hundred millions more to run the state than it cost a year to run the whole United States government up to 1917.

By the time a married couple got around to make out their state return for April 15th they were stuck for more by Tom than Little Harry saved 'em. Just like always; what the tax collector loses on the peanuts he makes up on the bananas.

MY FIRST GRIPE: In comparison with the remodeled federal income tax law, N. Y. State discriminates against small taxpayers. Unless husband and wife have separate incomes, separate state returns cannot be made. The total income on a joint return cannot be divided, thus moves into the higher percentages.

The only household with over $1,000 net income, that isn't in some way penalized, is one in which both husband and wife have separate incomes of at least $9,000 a year each.

While state use of the federal plan would not bring large savings to an affected taxpayer ($100 maximum) still a matter of fairness and principle is involved. It's the matter of penny-pouging the little fellow; of the nation collecting by one system, the state by another; plus the nuisance of making two kinds of tax reports, which is confusing and difficult for a lot of people.

The state should adopt the federal method which divides all family income between husband and wife and taxes everybody equally on that basis.

GRIPE NUMBER TWO is as old as the income tax. It's a waste of breath to huck it, but here goes. Every mother's son of us pays taxes to the state on income we never have.

The state tax return has a place to record "net income." That's the sum upon which we pay our tax. Net income, my eye! "Net" only in the sense that nets catch suckers.

Included in the state's "net income" is the money we pay Uncle Sam for income taxes. We pay from 20 to 95 per cent, according to our income bracket, into the U. S. Treasury. Then the State of New York makes us pay taxes on the taxes we pay to Washington, on money that buys us nothing.

That's a kyp of the first order. We can deduct state taxes from our federal return, but must include federal income taxes in our state return. It's double taxation with a vengeance—taxes upon taxes.

Since the days of good old Morris Tremaine, Democratic state comptroller, the people have never had a champion in Albany fighting this rank injustice.

Action Is Delayed On Election Charge

Washington, April 14 (AP)—A Senate Judiciary subcommittee today agreed to delay action until May 16 on a proposed change in the method of electing the president and vice president.

The delay was suggested by Edward Simmons, special writer for the New Bedford (Mass.) Standard-Times. He asked more time to make comparison to the proposed constitutional amendment.

Under it, the electoral college would be abolished but each state would retain the number of electoral votes it has now. The states, however, would split their electoral votes in proportion to the popular vote each candidate receives. As it is now, a candidate getting the state's largest popular vote receives the whole electoral vote.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

Passing Opening Bid Shows Weak Hand

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service
You cannot bid every hand in contract bridge according to the book. There are times when you must rely on your own judgment. In today's hand, for example, South lacks the qualifications for an opening bid. Under the point count system he has only eleven points. If you average the hand out, South is a ten-spot less than average. If you use the quick trick count, he has only two quick tricks. Nevertheless, this is considered a declarer type hand and some players will open it due to the fact that they have both majors.

Let us assume, however, that although this is a declarer type of hand, and you have two bidable majors, you feel that you want to pass it. The next hand passes and your partner opens the bidding with one club. The next hand bids a diamond. Now what should you bid?

You certainly should not bid one heart, as South did in today's hand. East has made a vulnerable overcall. If you bid one heart, your partner, who has a minimum opening bid, cannot try for a game. He has to be satisfied to buy the contract.

When East bids a diamond, you should tell your partner that you have everything but an opening bid. Therefore, your correct bid is two hearts. Now North has a much better picture of the whole hand. He knows you are not afraid of the diamond bid. You have encouraged him to go to game if he has a good sound bid, so you must have either a control in diamonds or a singleton. He can feel sure that the ace of spades has a fit in the South hand. The king of clubs could be wrong, but North is perfectly justified in taking the contract to four hearts.

In the play of the hand declarer trumps the second diamond, goes over to dummy's ace of spades, leads a heart, and when the king goes up, South wins with the ace. The king of spades is cashed and a spade ruffed in dummy. Then declarer can ruff a diamond, ruff out his last spade, lead a trump back to his hand and take the club finesse. When the queen of clubs holds, he cashes the ace of clubs, and gives up a club trick, making five odd.

SHOKAN

Shokan, April 13 — Charles Rodriguez and son-in-law, Felix Sierra, of New York are spending this week at the Rodriguez place in the Coons neighborhood. Felix is driving the new Ford sedan which he ordered last winter of a local agency. A former resident, he is now employed as a brewery mechanic and is on vacation pending settlement of the strike in New York. He was engaged in the plumbing and electrical business here, and may return to Shokan some day if he can find a suitable place along the Ontario Trail.

Edward Lee is again at his home on the mountain road following a visit of several weeks with relatives in North Dakota. Postmaster Betsy Vander Osten recently accompanied several other Ulster county residents to Hamden, Delaware county, to attend a meeting of the tri-county Association of Postmasters. A feature of the gathering was a dinner, served by church women of Hamden, and the proceedings were under the direction of the local postmaster, Mr. Sands. Those making the trip included Elsie Hart of High Falls and P. M. Henry of Port Jervis, both association officers, and Mrs. Henry Lounsbury, postmaster at Stone Ridge. Postmaster Polly of Andes also accompanied the party.

The Hazel Byrne residence in the village center of Ashokan has been painted white, the work being done by Mrs. Byrne's son-in-law, Henry Olund, who last fall did a similar job on the family summer boardinghouse near the schoolhouse.

Wilbur Sherwood, enterprising young Poughkeepsie business man who with his family formerly resided at Highland, was numbered among the callers in the hub of the reservoir country Monday afternoon.

Announcement has been made here of the forthcoming Reformed Church Classis which this year will take place Tuesday, April 19 at the Gwyneth Church. Mrs. C. C. Fuller is again at her Mountain Laurel Lodge on the Trail following a sojourn of four months in New York.

Edwin Swensen, Jr., a new pupil of the Shokan school, is well supplied with pets which include three dogs and a cat. Edwin sings in the Reformed Church Junior choir.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. and daughter, Sonia, recently spent a few days in Connecticut.

Brickyards Among Leading Industries Of Local Section

B. N. Ashton, chairman of the local Industry Promotion Committee of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce, announced today that a program is being launched to recognize the importance of local industries. The brick industry was chosen as the first about which to provide the public with information.

The brick industry is one of the most valuable to Kingston's economy because local raw materials are used in the process of manufacture. The clay banks along the Hudson river are an important natural resource. Practically all of the costs of production remain in local hands.

A survey by the committee provided the following facts about the brick industry. The total annual payroll of the six operating brickyards during the past year was $1,800,000. The annual purchases of supplies and services, practically all in Kingston, amounted to $305,000. In addition the same plants paid real estate and school taxes amounting to $24,000.

Although the brick industry is seasonal, more and more work has been provided during the winter months. The peak of employment is however reached during the season of open navigation when about 600 men are employed. There has been a reduction of the number of plants manufacturing brick during the past 25 years, but the industry continues to occupy a substantial position in the economy of the community.

Producers, Dealers Of Milk Industry Dine Here Tuesday

The fourth annual banquet of the Kingston Milk Council and the Kingston Milk Producers Association was held Tuesday night at the Airport Inn with 75 members and guests present.

B. H. Carter of Westkill, former member of the advertising staff of the Saturday Evening Post, was the guest speaker. Carter has been associated with the advertising business for 30 years. He spoke of his experiences at his farm in an effort to raise calves on a five year plan, but "at no time," he said, "did things work out according to my carefully devised plan."

Also speaking at the banquet was Paul Belco, who explained the efforts of the dealers to hold a steady market to give the producers a fair price for their milk. Harry Edinger told those assembled that the board of health was pleased with the cooperation between dealers and farmers in the county and stated that Ulster county has one of the best bottles of milk in the state.

George J. Silkworth, president of the Kingston Milk Council, welcomed the guests on behalf of his unit and Charles Allen on behalf of the Producers Association. Allen later spoke on the cooperation between dealers, producers and the department of health in producing quality milk in this county.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the banquet included George J. Silkworth and Mrs. Blanche Carrington, dealers; and Edmund Osterhout, Ira Saxe, Charles Allen and Carmine Sabino, producers.

Of 35,700 beneficial suggestions submitted by Navy civilian employees in 1948 almost 11,000 were adopted.

the committee" and closed with: "There is no misstatement of fact in this matter by the committee."

In some cases, the task force claimed the army was presenting new information to justify the old budget requests. In others, the Hoover subcommittee insisted that the military comment was not sufficient to the point.

Eberstadt's letter noted only "one or two small points where we are quite content to accept the army's views."

Royall said the army did not question points on which there are "honest differences of opinion," adding: "In other instances, however, it is felt that the testimony of army representatives was not properly recorded or interpreted by the committee representative."

Attached to his letter were "ten misstatements of fact and the comments of the army with reference to each." He asked Hoover to correct its report on those ten points.

One of them concerned this task force statement: "The army's original budgetary requests for fiscal year 1950 included an item for tropical worsted uniforms at $129 apiece, enough for all the enlisted men in the army and then some!"

The army's response said the request was intended to include 450,000 air force personnel, and that the cost per uniform was thus $40.48—not $129. It noted that the request was tentative and was never submitted to the budget bureau.

In its reply, the task force said that as far as it was concerned the reference to the air force was "additional information" and noted: "The army's comment does not question the committee's report of the item of $108,290,859 for tropical worsted uniforms."

It is in reply, the task force said that as far as it was concerned the reference to the air force was "additional information" and noted: "The army's comment does not question the committee's report of the item of $108,290,859 for tropical worsted uniforms."

made the trip to the Silver Mount Cemetery.

Rain-soaked F.B.I. agents lug for 10 minutes before finding the buried box.

Crowe warned the searchers to be careful when they lifted the box, since it was buried with the cover facing downward.

As Crowe prepared to return to the Federal House of Detention, his wife kissed him affectionately. Crowe then asked to be remembered to his three children.

Saypol said the cash was buried March 27, two days after the bank looting.

Crowe was taken in custody in a Daytona Beach, Fla., bar a few days after a nationwide hunt by the F.B.I.

Saypol said no promises concerning penalties were made to Crowe as an inducement to reveal the hidden cash.

Previously, the F.B.I. recovered $890,000 in bonds after Crowe directed them to a hiding place in the attic of his home. Earlier, about $31,000 of $194,690 in cash was recovered. About $50,000 was found in Crowe's suitcase when he was arrested; $15,000 was found where he had hidden it in his parents' home, and about $30,000 was mailed to his creditors.

New Equipment Is Approved by Town

Woodstock, April 14—At a special meeting Tuesday evening, the town board unanimously accepted and approved a recommendation made by Howard France, town superintendent of highways, to purchase a Ford truck and a Boston-Weston grader at a total net cost of $15,881.72. Necessary resolutions were adopted and forwarded with the recommendation to the county superintendent of highways, James Loughran, for his approval.

Superintendent France recommended that the purchase be made and after some discussion, members of the board deemed it advisable to follow his advice since they felt he was in a position to decide on the equipment best suited to his needs. The only bids received for the equipment were from the Woodstock Garage on the Ford truck and the Shale Tractor Company, Albany, for the grader.

It was explained by the highway superintendent that the grader to be replaced was 13 years old and has reached the stage where it is constantly costing considerable for repairs. When asked if he would recommend turning in the 1939 truck owned by the town, he stated that if possible, he would prefer keeping it as part of the town highway equipment for use in "cold patch" work.

If the purchases are approved by Mr. Loughran, the town equipment will include a Walters snow plow, one year old Ford truck, a new Ford truck and a new grader.

Supervisor Kenneth L. Wilson told those present at the meeting that the acquisition of this new equipment would not mean an increase in taxes, as there is sufficient reserve established to pay for the truck and one-fifth of the cost of the grader. The balance of the grader, cost would be apportioned over a period of four years.

In accordance with Section 142 of the Highway Law, requests for bids were made in local publications but none were received.

Spiced honey glaze adds appeal to Easter ham

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

A fragrant baked ham for Easter is a tradition in this country. But why not sweeten tradition a little and give that ham a spiced honey glaze?

First let's plan a menu that is not too complicated but does achieve springlike appeal.

Easter Menu: Grapefruit, baked ham with spiced honey glaze, garnished with turnip Easter lilies, raisin sauce, stuffed baked potatoes with grated cheese, buttered green beans with tiny white onions, mixed green salad (romaine, watercress, lettuce and hot poppy seed rolls, butter or fortified margarine, lemon chiffon pie, coffee, milk.

Baked Ham With Spiced Honey Glaze

Wipe ham with clean cloth. Bake in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) allowing 15 minutes per pound for hams 12 pounds or over; 18 minutes per pound for hams under 12 pounds; 22 minutes per pound for half hams. Count on 1 1/2 pound of ham per person.

One-half hour before ham is done, remove from oven. Carefully skin off rind and cut fat in diamond or square design with sharp knife. Insert whole cloves into each square. Cover with glaze and bake one-half hour longer, basting several times with glaze and ham juices in bottom of pan.

Spicy Raisin Sauce (Makes about 2 cups)

One-third cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1 teaspoon flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 1/2 cups boiling water, 3/4 cup vinegar, 1/4 cup seedless raisins, 1 teaspoon butter.

Mix dry ingredients, add water and vinegar gradually, stirring well. Simmer slowly until thickened, stirring constantly. Add raisins and cook 2 minutes longer or until raisins are plump. Add butter.

Easter Lily Flowers for Garnish

Slice turnips very thin; roll as you would a cornucopia; stick carrot sticks in center and surround with watercress. Use a toothpick to hold the turnip together.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Grapefruit juice, ready-to-eat whole grain cereal, hot cross buns, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Toasted sardine sandwiches, watercress and mayonnaise sandwiches, raw carrot sticks, baked apples, tea, milk.

DINNER: Vegetable chowder, baked halibut, lemon butter with chopped parsley, buttered new potatoes, broiled tomato halves, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, pascal celery, cup custard with crushed fresh or frozen strawberries, coffee, milk.

Golden-rich condensed Chicken Broth: Serve full strength or diluted. Grand for soups—gravies: Buy College Inn—America's most famous name in fine foods.

Kathy Fiscus Is Buried; Hundreds Attend Funeral

Chula Vista, Calif., April 14 (AP)—For Kathy Fiscus—"Sweet sleep, a clear sky and our Father's love."

The minister said they were hers forever.

Then the little girl, whose death in an abandoned well near her San Marino home saddened the world, was committed to her grave.

The burial rites here yesterday followed by a few hours the funeral services at Alhambra. Both were marked with simplicity and were attended by a few hundred mourners, in addition to the family.

Three-year-old Kathy's body was brought up Sunday night

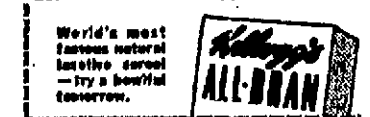

"BRAN-ANA" MUFFINS

Quick-easy recipe for combining the moist goodness of bananas with nut-sweet Kellogg's All-Bran. Delicious!

1/2 cup shortening 1 cup mashed, fully-ripe bananas
1/2 cup sugar 1 cup sifted flour
1 egg 2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup Kellogg's All-Bran 1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup milk 1/2 teaspoon salt

1. Blend shortening and sugar until creamy; add egg and beat well.
2. Add All-Bran and milk; let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Stir in bananas.
3. Sift flour with baking powder, soda and salt; add to first mixture stirring only until combined.
4. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in preheated moderately hot oven (400°F.) 25 to 30 minutes.
Yield: 12 muffins—2 1/2" in diameter.

from the 14-inch pipe into which she had fallen to a depth of 92 feet Friday. Volunteers worked desperately through 52 hours to reach the little victim.

The San Marino Congregational minister, Rev. Bertrand A. Christ, who had baptized Kathy, read both services.

Meanwhile in Los Angeles, donations, offers of jobs and medical aid piled up today for the rescue workers.

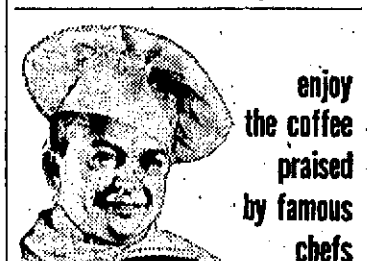

One of the heroes, unemployed O. A. Kelly, has had an offer to work at the Howard Hughes aircraft plant.

H. E. (Whitey) Blickensderfer has the promise of free surgical care for a hernia operation.

Bill Yancey and Batram Herpel, who also spent long hours in the rescue shift, received a contract for a cesspool in Duarte, near here. They admitted their firm hadn't been doing so well, but things are looking up for them now.

GOODBYE TO KATHY

Sad-faced Mrs. David Fiscus, mother of little Kathy, and Barbara, nine-year-old sister of the tiny girl who tumbled to her death in an abandoned well, leave a funeral chapel at Alhambra, Calif. after services for Kathy. Many of the workers whose attempts to rescue the girl stirred the nation also attended the funeral. (NEA Telephoto)

Farm Safeguards
Geneva, N. Y.—How chemists at the Experiment Station here strive to safeguard users of fertilizers, feeding stuffs, and the spray and dust materials for the control of insect pests and diseases of fruits and vegetables, is revealed in the station's sixty-seventh annual report now available upon request. Official samples of these products offered for sale within the state are collected on the open market by representatives of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets and forwarded to the Experiment Station for analysis. The station chemists determine the composition of the samples which are identified in such a way that the analyst knows nothing about the origin of the sample or the name of the manufacturer. The analyses are then checked with the guaranteed composition of the product and where serious deficiencies are found steps are taken to protect the purchaser against loss.

Volts Meet April 19
The regular monthly meeting of Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association is scheduled for Tuesday, April 19, at 8 p. m. in Modena Hall, with three companies as hosts, Modena, Clintondale and Plattkill. Annual dues may be paid to avoid delay at the county convention July 28, 29 and 30. Secretaries are requested to send names of delegates as soon as possible.

19 Nazi Officials

sent that the prosecution had failed to prove the defendants were personally to blame for the Nazi crimes.

Equal Outpability

The other two judges ruled that officials who signed criminal orders were just as responsible as the men who committed the actual murders and brutalities. The judges of the majority were William C. Christianson of Red Wing, Minn., and Robert T. Maguire of Portland, Ore.

The defendants, all high ministerial officials or diplomats in Hitler's government, were called in one by one to hear their fates from the lips of Judge Christianson, presiding.

The courtroom was packed as sentences were pronounced in the same room where Hermann Goering and other top-ranking Nazis were convicted nearly three years ago by an international tribunal.

The court found the 19 sentenced today guilty in one way or another of helping in the Nazi program of aggression, plunder, brutality and murder.

One of the eight charges in the original indictment was dropped early in the trial. This was a charge of prewar crimes against the Germans.

Weizsaecker was credited with four years he has been in prison awaiting trial, leaving him only three years to serve.

Other sentences: Ernst Ernst, suave English-born chief of the Nazi party's foreign organization—five years on count eight.

Ernst Voermann, chief of the political division of the German foreign office and prewar councillor at the London embassy—seven years on counts one and five.

Karl Ritter, former ambassador for special assignments, known as the Hatched Man of the foreign office—four years on count three.

Edmund Veesenmayer, convicted of directing the liquidation of seven hundred thousand Jews as minister plenipotentiary in Hungary—20 years on counts five, seven and eight.

Hans Heinrich Lammers, one-eyed chief of the Reichschancellery—20 years on counts one, three, five, six, seven and eight.

Richard Walther Darré, Argentine-born minister for food and agriculture—seven years on counts five, six and eight.

Otto Dietrich, Hitler's press chief—seven years on counts five and eight.

Gottlob Berger, S.S. lieutenant general, who acted as liaison with occupied territories—25 years on counts three, five, seven and eight.

Lutz Schwerin von Krosigk, former finance minister rated second to Hjalmar Schacht on mobilizing Germany's finances for war—10 years on counts five and six.

Paul Fuhrl, director of the Reichbank, which turned into war cash good teeth and jewelry taken from gas chamber victims—five years on count five.

Karl Rasche, head of the powerful Dresdener Bank and director of many concerns in occupied countries seized by the Nazis—seven years on counts six and eight.

Hans Kohrl, who once headed the war production office—15 years on counts five, six, seven and eight.

Four defendants to be sentenced were absent from the courtroom because of illness.

Gustav Steingracht von Moyland, bright young man of the foreign office, who succeeded Weizsaecker as state secretary, got a seven-year sentence on counts three and five. He is in a German hospital with typhoid fever.

A 10-year sentence was passed on Wilhelm Keppeler, Hitler's first economic advisor and organizer of the "Circle of Friends" of Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler. Keppeler, also in the hospital with suspected typhoid, was convicted on four counts—one, five, six and eight.

The court ruled Wilhelm Stuckart was so ill any sentence against him would amount to the death penalty, so no sentence was given him in addition to the four years he already has been in prison awaiting trial.

Walter Schellenberg, chief of S. S. Intelligence, was sentenced to six years on counts five and eight.

The Navy's newest heavy cruiser, U.S.S. Newport News, is the most completely air-conditioned fighting ship afloat.

Say Chokecherry Has Virus Deadly to Peaches

Ithaca, N. Y., April 13 (AP)—"Choke the chokecherry" is the new cry of New York fruit specialists.

The State College of Agriculture will conduct a campaign from June 15 to September 15 to kill, by spraying, all chokecherries within 500 feet of peach and cherry orchards.

The common bush, the college said yesterday, is the only known source of a virus infecting peaches and cherries.

Several cherry orchards in Wayne and Columbia counties have been destroyed by the virus, said Prof. Richard Fricke, assistant state leader of county agricultural agents.

The chokecherry campaign will be emphasized in those counties as well as in Chautauque, Niagara, Monroe, Ontario and Ulster.

Fishermen Are Unhurt As Car Hits Pole

An automobile driven by Lewis Palmatier, 74, of Red Hook was damaged when it struck a pole on Route 9W just north of Esopus at 6:50 a. m. today, state police reported.

Palmatier was uninjured and his passenger, James Martin, 45, also of Red Hook, required no medical treatment although he told authorities he had a slight pain caused by bumping his head on the roof of the automobile, state police said.

Palmatier told troopers he believed the front wheels of the automobile locked, causing it to spin around twice in the highway, its rear end finally striking the pole. The two men were en route to the Catskill Mountains to spend the day fishing, state police said. A total of 35,000 men were involved in the Navy's largest peacetime maneuvers.

View of Early Cemetery at Hurley

Grange undertakes restoration project at one of county's earliest cemeteries.

Hurley Grange to Restore
Ancient Burial Grounds

Gilly Pawling, born November 21, 1746, died May 23, 1789.

"Behold me as you pass by
As you are now so once was I.
As I am now you soon shall be.
Prepare my friends to follow me."
(This stone has a skull and cross bones inscribed on the top.)

The grounds of the historic old cemetery at Hurley are being cleaned and beautified by members of Hurley Grange No. 963.

The burying place of many early settlers, the old cemetery is situated on a knoll behind the Elmendorf homestead in the center of the hamlet. It had fallen into disuse during the past 100 years and was replaced by the larger cemetery a few hundred yards away.

The project, approved by the Grange at a regular meeting April 7, will restore the grounds to a condition fitting to the historic site. Grange members hope to have the project completed by Memorial Day.

Much of the brush growing among the stones has already been cleared. It is planned to repair the access road, now impassable to vehicles, to build a fence around the area, to grade and seed the lawn and to plant flowers.

Citizens Asked To Help. Started as a Grange community service project, all citizens of Hurley have been invited to join. Matthew Tryon, overseer of the Hurley Grange, is chairman of the committee in charge of the project. Other committee members are all officers of the Grange. They are: Walter Stauble, master; Ada Stauble, lecturer; Winfred Snyder, steward; James Davis, assistant steward; Christina Dixon, chaplain; Justin Bell, treasurer; Arthur Wood, secretary; Frank Krutzfeldt, gatekeeper; Helen Snyder, Ceres; Harriet Van Kleeck, Pomona; Mabel Rowse, Flora; and Ann Goetchius, lady assistant steward.

The project has stimulated interest in the history of the old burying ground.

Date from 1700's. Oldest legible stones date back to the early 1700's. One bears the name of Captain Mathys ten Eyck and a Dutch inscription recording his date of birth as May 18, 1658, and his death July 6, 1741. Others, inscribed roughly, bear earlier dates but only the initials of the deceased.

At that time, the cemetery was in charge of the Hurley Reformed Church. It is probable that prior to 1700 burials of Hurley settlers were made in the cemetery surrounding the First Dutch Church in Kingston.

Complete records of the history are lacking, but apparently it was in 1853 that a cemetery association was formed by the church and the land for the new cemetery acquired.

It was about that time that the original limestone Hurley church was torn down. Some of the stones were used as a foundation of the new church and others may be seen today in the wall around the new cemetery, one long-time Hurley resident said.

Although the new cemetery opened about 1853, the old one was continued in use to comparatively recent times by descendants of plot holders. No new plots were sold there, however, and the old grounds gradually gave way to the new.

Formed in 1905. The Hurley Cemetery Association was formed in 1905 and maintenance of the cemeteries passed completely from the control of the church. Mrs. James D. Wyncoop was one of the leaders in the cemetery association and she obtained the assistance of the late Judge A. T. Clearwater in drawing up organizational papers.

The late Peter Elmendorf was one of the early officers of the association.

A non-profit organization existing on assessments on its members, the association found it difficult to maintain the old cemetery along with the new, which resulted in a deterioration of the old cemetery.

About 40 years ago a memorial was erected in the old plot to the memory of Colonel Charles DeWitt, 1727-1787. Col. DeWitt was a patriot, statesman and leader in the Revolutionary War, the memorial notes, and a member of the Colonial Assembly from 1766 to 1775.

In recent years many descendants of Hurley settlers have visited the cemetery to gather data on their forebears from the stones.

Present officers of the Hurley Cemetery Association are Harry Beatty, president; Isaac Kousa, treasurer; John Ostrander, secretary. Claude Taylor is cemetery superintendent.

Hurley residents who supplied the Freeman reporter with information for this article include Mrs. Claude Palen, Abram Elmendorf, Walter Stauble, Grange master, and Mrs. S. F. TenEyck.

Drain Anti-Freeze

If your car overheats too quickly on these spring days, check at once to see if you have drained off the anti-freeze placed in the cooling system for cold weather use, the Automobile Club of New York warns car owners. "Alcohol, the base for most anti-freeze solutions, boils at a low temperature and if not drained off will heat the car after a few miles of steady travel," Harry Marionhoff, manager of the Club's Emergency Road Service Department, advises.

'Good Friday'

(Sophie Schmidtkonz)

So let us weep, with those who wept
When Christ was led to meet his death.
He climbed the hill and carried his cross.
The wicked jeered, his followers feared.
They stayed with him, the good, the bad.
They heard his words, the good were sadd.

Oh tender Jesus, meek and mild,
To bear all this, and for us die,
Help us to grow, from day to day
More like thee, Saviour, this we pray.

Three Joneses Are Arrested by Officers

Frank, Albert and Harriet Jones, all of R.D. 2, Kingston, were arrested Wednesday afternoon by County Investigator Clayton Vredenburg and Deputy Sheriff Arthur Smith on warrants charging disorderly conduct.

Albert Jones, arrested on complaint of Mrs. Margaret McCordie of Stony Hollow, was granted a hearing before Justice of the Peace Albert Davis, who suspended imposition of a $25 fine.

Frank and Harriet Jones were arrested on complaint of Thomas McCordie. They were released for hearing before Justice Davis at the town hall in West Hurley April 20 at 8 p. m.

Glass Is Arrested

Marty Ean Glass, 24, of 28 Abrun street was arrested on a bench warrant by Sheriff George C. Smith and Detective Clarence Brophy Wednesday morning at the Lehigh Valley Prison, Pa., where Glass had been released after serving a term there. He was returned to the Ulster county jail to await trial in county court on a burglary third degree and unlawful entry charge for which he was indicted by the Ulster county grand jury.

15 Belmont Place

April 8, 1949

Editor, The Freeman:

I was delighted to read in your fine paper of the comment of one of your local citizens regarding the proposal to change the names of the Albany Day Boats, and agree with every word of it. Quite right.

In conversing with people up and down the valley, as I do very often, I have found a great many who feel as we do, and I say to all of them, "Write to Mr. Sanders and tell him." He is a newcomer to the river. He does not realize the affection with which those boats are regarded all along the stream. And I think that, when he realizes the attitude of the potential passengers on whom he must rely if his line is to succeed, he will change his mind.

There is the great "Hendrick Hudson," which has carried the name of the explorer of the river up and down its course for 43 years; the beloved "Robert Fulton," reminding us daily of the man who introduced steam propulsion to our river and gave our cities the character which they still retain; and the fleet and staunch "Alexander Hamilton," without which the Hudson would never be quite the same.

I believe that Mr. Sanders has not fully considered his rash proposal. I understand from men who are familiar with the marine field that Mr. Sanders has previously renamed steamboats which he controlled with proper feeling and effect. He renamed the boat he has been running to Bear Mountain, quite appropriately, "Bear Mountain." He gave to the boats which he has been running in the sightseeing business in New York such adequate names as "Traveler," "Tourist," "Sightseer" and "Visitor."

So I say to him, if you must toy with the names of our Hudson

River steamboats, take just one name—the name of the heroic General Eisenhower—and put it on the "Peter Stuyvesant." The fact that we are still here and able to enjoy the delights of the river is due in no small measure to the work of that military leader. We are liberals. We will trade one Dutch governor for one good general. But leave us the "Hendrick Hudson," "Robert Fulton" and "Alexander Hamilton."

Thank you very much.
Truly yours,
ALLISON M. THORPE.

Two Actions Are Settled at Recess

During a recess of Supreme Court Wednesday two actions brought by Patricia Struzinsky and another against Seeman Brothers, Inc., and Patricia Struzinsky against Harry Slutsky, warranty and money damage actions, were announced settled.

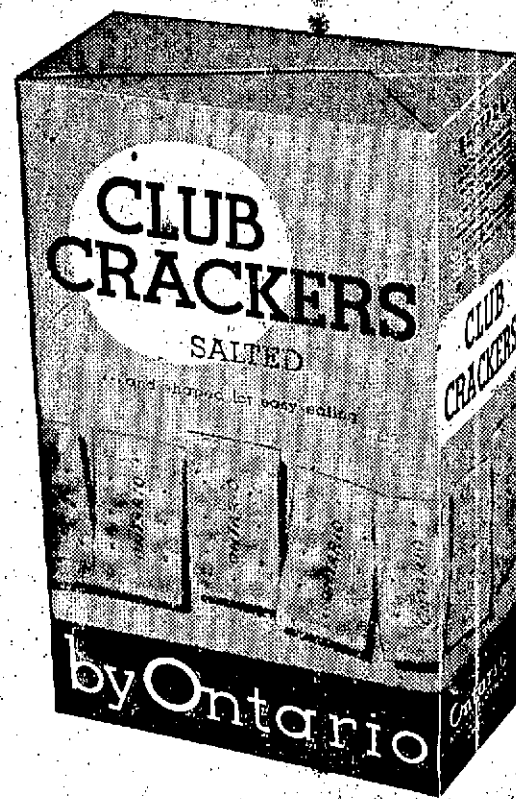

Manuel Dittenheimer appeared for plaintiff and Breed, Abbott & Morgan for defendants. There were no other cases ready and court recessed until 10 o'clock this morning.

A breach of warrant action brought by Patricia J. O'Neill against Derk Zwart, Lounsbury & Lonsbry for plaintiff and W. E. Deisseroth for defendant was also announced settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Garrison and sons and Nicholas T. Cocks were supper guests of Mrs. Emma Terwilliger and mother, Mrs. Baker in Cliftondale Saturday.

The Rev. and Mrs. William Coomb and Mr. and Mrs. Max Lambert of Ellenville spent last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Myra Dolan and mother, Mrs. Low.

Roy Birch, who is a student at Central College, Pella, Ia., is spending the Easter vacation with his grandmother and aunt, Mrs. M. L. Birch and Mrs. William Tars.

Mrs. A. D. McKinstry and Mrs. Edythe Dushberry of Gardiner were supper guests of Miss Bertha Sutton, Sunday and later attended the Union Lenten Service in the New Hurley Church.

Edward Powell and brother, John Powell of Leptondale, were in Middletown Sunday afternoon and called at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Burr. Several from here attended the play, "Something for Nothing," at the Plattkill Grange Hall last Friday and Saturday. James Wilkin of this place took a leading part.

The annual congregational meeting of the New Hurley Reformed Church was held April 5 at the church hall. At 7 p. m. a pot-luck supper was enjoyed with about 50 attending after which the regular meeting was held.

The report of the last congregational meeting was given by Wilson Edmonds, clerk of the consistory. Reports of the various organizations of the church were given by the treasurers as follows:

Ladies' Aid, Mrs. Clifford Hotelling; Missionary Society, Mrs. Clarence Spencer; Young Women's Club, Mrs. Edward Humphreys; Sunday school, Mrs. William Powell; Good Cheer, by Mrs. Powell; Clifford Hotelling and Gerow Schoonmaker were elected elders.

Huskey Sherwood re-elected for two years and George Boyce as deacons. The meeting closed with a prayer by N. T. Cocks.

The Ladies' Aid Society was entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Gerow Wilkin. The newly elected president, Mrs. George Sherwood, took charge of the meeting. It was voted that the society will sell greeting cards and cookies to raise money. A spring supper will be held at the church hall May 11 with the officers of the society as a committee and others helping. Tickets will be on sale. Mrs. Kobel was welcomed as a new member. At the close refreshments were served by the hostess and a social time was enjoyed.

Albert Cronk and Wilson Edmonds have completed the painting of the roof of the New Hurley Church.

Mrs. Wilbur J. Van Wyck and Mrs. George Sherwood decorated the church for the Lenten Service.

There was a large crowd at the services and the Rev. John Van Stien delivered the sermon.

Special music was rendered by the choir with Mrs. George Boyce at the organ and William Topping as the director.

Mrs. Gerow Wilkin will have charge of the Easter flowers. All those who are bringing flowers are requested to have them at the church by Saturday afternoon, so that they may be arranged. Names should be given before Friday so as to appear on the Easter Bulletin.

Easter sunrise service will be held at the Borden Farms next Sunday at 7 a. m. The Rev. Richard Hine of Walkkill will be the speaker.

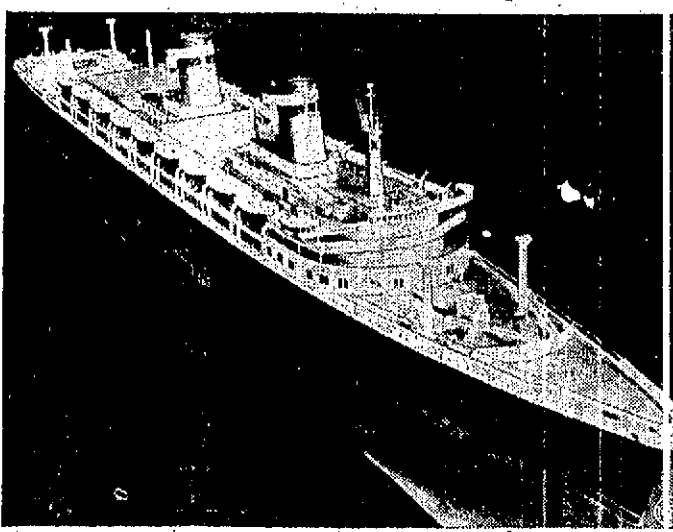

A large crowd attended the communion service held in the New Hurley Church last Sunday morning when the following were received as members on confession of faith: Alice Baumann, Ruth Cronk, Mildred Sutton, Richard Powell, Edwin Nelson, John Gregg, and Mrs. James Miller. By letter, Mr. and Mrs. Sigfred Kvamme and John Kvamme from the Plymouth Church of the Pilgrims, New York.

Special Easter services will be held in the Church Sunday at 11 a. m. with special music by the choir.

The spring Missionary Conference of the Classis of Orange will be held in the New Hurley Church Thursday, April 21, beginning at 10:15 a. m. Miss Helen Brinkman and Mrs. Alvin Nevel will bring messages from the mission fields. Luncheon will be served at the Church Hall.

Automatic rapid firing 8-inch guns and powerful secondary and anti-aircraft batteries will deliver the one-two punch of the Navy's new heavy cruisers.

U. S. Plans Rival for 'Queens'

Here is a model of the proposed $70,373,000 American transatlantic superliner, largest ever constructed in the U. S. Accommodating 2000 passengers, or 12,000 troops in time of war, the 48,000-ton ship will be 980 feet long and have a speed of more than 28 knot. Proposed for the U. S. Lines, it will be slightly smaller than Britain's "Queen" ships, the Elizabeth and Mary.

Charge Russia Is Massing in Poland

Two recently-escaped Polish officials, Stanislaw Banczyk, left, vice-chairman of the Polish Peasant Party, and Stanislaw Wojcicki, secretary-general of the party, charged that Russia has massed more than 300,000 troops in Poland for an attack on the west. The two men, shown using a map in Washington to point out locations, said the attack "may come this year." The U. S. State Department is investigating the charge.

New Laws Signed To Simplify Real Property Review

Albany, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—New York state has two new laws today which Governor Dewey says will simplify procedure for the review of real property assessments.

Both measures, signed yesterday by Dewey, are designed to make it easier to seek tax relief after it has been denied by a direct appeal to a local tax commission.

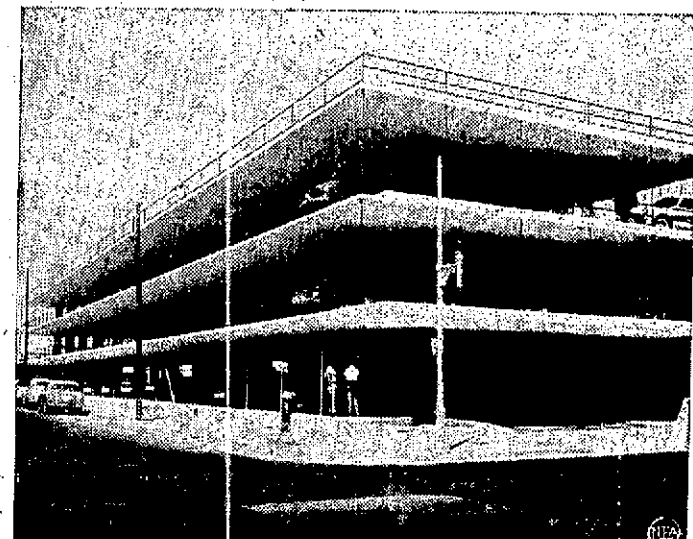

One of the new laws abolishes the writ of certiorari which previously had to be obtained from a Supreme Court justice and served on a tax commission to obtain review of a final determination regarding property taxes.

The second law provides that review may be obtained by serving a petition on the local commission and filing a copy of the service with a Supreme Court clerk.

The governor, meanwhile, vetoed a bill which would have allowed surrogates to grant a 10-year deferment on estate tax payments when the principal asset was timberland.

Dewey said the measure was "unjustly discriminatory."

Weizmann Returns To U. S.; Receives Visiting Honors

New York, April 14 (AP)—Israel's first president, Dr. Chaim Weizmann, was back in the United States today—and he was proud and happy about many things.

He was proud of the new Jewish state, and of what its soldiers and citizens have done.

He was happy that the fighting has ended. He was confident Israel never will fall to an invader.

It was the 74-year-old president's first visit here since his inauguration. Full honors befitting a visiting chief of state were extended to him.

His arrival yesterday came at the start of the eight-day celebration of the Passover marking the deliverance of the Jews from Egypt.

"We have had many Egypts," said Weizmann, "but always we survived."

Thirty years ago, he said, the "dream" of a Jewish state "seemed fantastic," but it is now a "hard reality."

The long-time Jewish leader said new attacks may be launched against his state.

But they will not succeed, he added, because "for them it will mean simply invasion—for us, life or death."

He praised Israel's soldiers.

"These lads have given an excellent account of themselves," he said, "and will again, if God forbid, we are again attacked."

Weizmann, still erect despite his years, was met at the airport by a delegation of government officials and others, including an envoy of President Truman.

A special suite at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel—reserved for royalty and presidents—was given him. American and Israeli flags hung outside the Waldorf facade.

Weizmann, who is to be here until May 1, said he expects to confer some time next week with President Truman on current Israel problems.

Chief among these, he said, is the absorption of immigrants—now arriving at the rate of 30,000 a month.

Predicting that a million Jews will arrive in Israel in the next five years, Weizmann said the new state must have help from "the great Jewish community of the United States" to meet the burden.

The independent offices measure carries $5,145,431.940 for the V.A. and $1,090,120,397 for the Atomic Energy Commission. The 26 other agencies share the balance.

The total is $734,650,599 less than President Truman requested. The V.A. would suffer a $308,750,060 cut and the Atomic Energy Commission would be cut $76,479,603. The remainder of the slash would be shared by the other offices.

The measure includes $237,000,000 authorizing construction of veterans' hospitals despite the President's suggestion that the amount be canceled.

Not a single major change was made in the defense bill, which whizzed through the House by a 271 to 1 vote. Rep. Marcantonio (A.L.P.-N.Y.) was the only member who opposed final passage.

The bill carries $13,272,815,900 in cash and $2,636,301,000 in contract authority, a total of $15,909,116,900 more than the President requested.

The Air Force gets the largest slice, $6,215,709,000, to build toward a 70-group air force. The Army's share is $4,481,834,200 and the Navy's $5,018,873,000. A move to add $300,000,000 for naval aviation was defeated.

Last year the Navy gave more than 10,500 cash awards to civilian personnel for money saving suggestions.

Fitzpatrick Puts Tax Blame on Governor

New York, April 14 (AP)—Democratic State Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick today charged Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's administration with "sole responsibility" for the "50 per cent" hike in state income taxes.

Dewey was elected on promises to "streamline government" and "eliminate waste and inefficiency." Fitzpatrick told a news conference, but "the irresponsible, wasteful pattern of government followed by the Republican administration in Albany becomes clearer with each passing year."

The 1949 Legislature, after a long fight which at times split the Republican majority, voted to place income taxes at the 90 per cent of normal level instead of the 60 per cent level prevailing last year.

Fitzpatrick said gains in local elections in the state by his party were a result of the tax boost.

Asks Alliance Support

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Turkey's foreign minister, Necmeddin Sadak, today urged that the United States and other Atlantic Pact powers support the establishment of a Mediterranean defense alliance.

The visiting Turkish leader suggested at a news conference that a Mediterranean pact could be linked in some way to the North Atlantic defense arrangement.

"Turkey considers the Atlantic Pact insufficient in some aspects for the maintenance of peace on the continent of Europe," he said.

Proclamation

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk today issued the following proclamation: WHEREAS, Friday, April 15, is Good Friday, I call upon the citizens of Kingston to give emphasis to the great spiritual truth of that day.

Throughout the Christian nations of the world, people will gather in their houses of worship to commemorate the death of Christ. His supreme sacrifice is a constant reminder to us that no greater love hath any man than this, that he laid down his life for a friend.

We must give ourselves constantly with this truth in order to stand fast against the forces of paganism and godlessness which are so rampant throughout the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, I call upon each and every one to attend their house of God and to pray that the message of Christ might become the cornerstone of our faith and living.

OSCAR V. NEWKIRK, Mayor.

Disability Bill . . .

approximately 60 per cent of the workers who will come under the plan already are covered by similar insurance programs.

The provision to finance the program through employer-employee contributions was supported by the State Federation of Labor, but was bitterly opposed by the State C.I.O. and the Democratic and American Labor parties. They asked that costs be paid entirely by employers.

For Four or More As in the case of unemployment insurance, employers of four or more persons will be required to participate.

Religious, charitable and educational institutions and farmers will be exempt. However, they and employers of less than four persons may participate voluntarily.

Other major provisions of the law are: 1. Disability benefits may not be collected by a person receiving either workmen's compensation or unemployment insurance.

2. A seven-day waiting period is required before sickness benefit payments may begin.

3. Persons who become disabled during unemployment will receive benefits from a special $12,000,000 fund to be financed by annual assessments against self-insured employers, insurance companies and approved welfare plans.

The latter provision is to cover persons whose unemployment insurance benefits have ceased because of non-occupational injury or illness.

In his memorandum Dewey stated: "This bill brings to the working men and women of the state of New York the benefits of social insurance against the hazards of sickness and disability not incurred in their employment. That advance alone makes it a most important achievement."

He declared that "the bill, in contrast to similar plans in other states, provides the very minimum of government interference in the field of social insurance." The memorandum concluded: "With the many advances made on behalf of labor in recent years in the fields of unemployment insurance, workmen's compensation, anti-discrimination and minimum wages, this bill will take a high place."

Miss Donlon, Mailer and Condon were present at the signing of the measure.

Also present were Thomas A. Murray, Harold C. Hanover and Mrs. Betty H. Donnelly, president, John G. Watson, counsel for the New York State Council of Retail A.F.L.; Industrial Commissioner

Trains ran late between Seattle and Portland, by-passing the Narrows route at Tacoma where quake-caused slides were not expected to be cleared until sometime today.

Geysers of Water At Puyallup, near Tacoma, geysers of water appeared suddenly during the quake in a four-block area. There were no water mains in the vicinity.

In Seattle a preliminary listing showed 75 buildings which suffered quake damage for amounts estimated up to $50,000 apiece.

The top 100-foot section of radio station KJR's Harbor Island tower off but was still hanging from the rest of the structure. Broadcasting continued.

A man who drove from Vancouver, Wash., to Seattle during the day said it appeared the Centralia-Goshalis sector had been shaken the worst by the two-minute tremor. "They were keeping people out of the buildings in Chehalis until they could inspect them," he said.

"How did the quake affect you?"

There were scores of versions, and today the stories were snow-balling with embellishments. But one mute testimonial came from a doll show being held at a downtown store here.

Some 3,000 dolls, valued at more than $100,000, were on display. After the quake a checkup showed only two were damaged. One doll's head was shattered, but the other damaged doll can be repaired.

Would Keep Controls

Washington, April 14 (AP)—President Truman said today he wants Congress to continue the government's power to control time-payment buying. The question was raised at Mr. Truman's news conference by a reporter who noted that so-called Regulation W expires June 30. That is the regulation governing installment buying.

Late Bulletin

Windsor, Ont., April 14 (AP)—A blow from a Yo-yo was virtually ruled out by a physician today as the cause of death of 10-year-old Gerald Bates.

The boy was playing with the wooden spool-on-a-string toy Tuesday night when it struck him on the head. Apparently suffering no ill effects, he went to school yesterday. Within a short time he became violently ill, then unconscious. He died later in the day in a hospital here.

Death at first was attributed to a cerebral hemorrhage. But Dr. S. M. Asselstine, who conducted a post-mortem, said the blow from the yo-yo "could at most have been only incidental to rupture of a brain tumor." He said there was no mark on Gerald's head.

The boy's family said he never had showed any evidence of a brain tumor.

sible change in the Soviet attitude.

Acheson was prompted to make his brief comment on the situation yesterday by an inquiry about a press dispatch from London. This dispatch, attributed to a diplomatic informant, a report that Russia recently had offered to lift the blockade in return for renewing four power talks on Germany. Acheson indicated he had studied the report and carefully considered beforehand what he would say about it. The secretary's associates flatly declined to amplify his remarks. Some usually well-informed officials said they had never heard of any Russian idea. At Frankfurt, Germany, General Lucius D. Clay, the American military governor, said he had not been approached on it.

If there was any hope stirring that the Russians might modify their position and accept western terms on Germany, there were little outward signs to support it.

The Moscow radio was heard in London saying that the Anglo-American-French plans for western Germany are: "Destined to complete the political dismemberment of Germany, perpetuate the occupation regime, postpone indefinitely the conclusion of a peace treaty and make certain the separate west German state is included in the aggressive North Atlantic bloc."

Also, Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister, arose in the United Nations Assembly meeting in New York and delivered a full scale attack on the North Atlantic Treaty.

Gas Turbine

First gas turbine-electric locomotive to be built in the United States will be operated on a demonstration basis next summer. This locomotive is fired by oil, but engineers hope it will lead to a successful coal-burning gas turbine.

Farmers to Get $4.25 for March

New York, April 14 (AP)—Dairy farmers will receive a uniform price of $4.25 per hundredweight (about 47 quarts) for milk delivered during March to pool-approved plants in the New York milkshed.

The March producer butterfat differential will be 5.4 cents for each tenth of a pound above or below the 3.5 per cent standard. The figures were announced last night by A. J. Pollard, acting administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area.

In March, 1948, the uniform price was $5.05, and last February it was $4.56.

Pollard also gave these milk

Industry statistics:

Despite the heaviest March milk production in six years, fluid milk consumption dropped 2.17 per cent last month. Fluid milk sales dropped to 258,005,405 pounds last month—a decrease of 2,893,679 pounds or 1.1 per cent from March, 1948—in the marketing area. This area includes New York city and Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester counties.

Sales of fluid milk from the New York milkshed to non-federally-regulated markets in upstate New York and northern New Jersey fell to 25,373,743 pounds, a drop of 3,203,043 pounds or 11.21 per cent. Sales from the New York milkshed to other federally-regulated markets decreased to 150,769 pounds, a drop of 178,965 pounds or 54.28 per cent.

Last month, total fluid consumption was 283,529,917 pounds, a drop of 6,275,687 pounds compared with March, 1948.

The total farm value of last month's production was $22,738,473. This was composed of $22,302,205 at the uniform price and $436,268 in butterfat and location premiums.

'Grand Canyon of the East'

Sometimes called "The Grand Canyon of the East," the gorge of the Genesee River is one of the most notable examples of waterfall and gorge scenery in the east, according to "New York State Vacationlands," issued by the State Department of Commerce. The river drops 700 feet in three great falls 50 miles south of Rochester and passes over three additional falls in the city of Rochester itself, furnishing the power which led to the city's early development. Seventeen miles of the most scenic section of the gorge have been preserved in Letchworth State Park, one of 78 State Parks in all parts of the state.

Purely Decorative, Chamber of Commerce Says

It's springtime in Texas. And the white blanket covering the green foliage just adds to the color... or that's the Chamber of Commerce way of explaining the snow in Odessa in April. A recent spell of peculiar weather caused snowfalls in several parts of the state.

Image of St. Ann Said to Cry When Kissed by Child

Syracuse, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—Hundreds came last night to watch an 11-year-old girl kiss the forehead of a broken religious statue saved from a trash can. Many, including a Roman Catholic priest, said tears appeared in the eyes of the plaster image of St. Ann after Shirley Anne Martin had pressed her lips to it. It happened time after time, they said.

Some visitors kissed the severed head but nothing happened, witnesses reported.

The Rev. Francis J. Furfaro of Our Lady of Pompei Church said he had "watched the little girl kiss the head and it began to weep."

"I can only say," he added, "that it is a wonderful, extraordinary occurrence."

Two other priests from that church, Father Furfaro said, also had seen what were described as tears in the painted eyes of the three-inch plaster head after it had been kissed by the Martin girl.

Bishop Walter A. Foery of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Syracuse could not be reached for comment.

Shirley Anne, the oldest of a

Syracuse milkman's four children, attends public school. They are Catholics.

The child was reported near exhaustion last night after demonstrating the phenomenon for several hours. St. Ann was the mother of the Virgin Mary, the mother of Christ.

Meanwhile, John McMahon, dean of the state College of Ceramics at Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y., told newsmen by telephone that from a scientific standpoint the occurrence of tears "doesn't seem probable."

McMahon, a Catholic, said that plaster of Paris absorbs water readily but does not release it except through evaporation.

Detective James McDonald estimated that 500 persons were in or around the Martins' second-floor, eastside flat last night. The Martins planned to open their home to visitors again today.

Lighting Novelties

Among new lighting novelties are electric lamps that simulate candle flame to provide atmosphere in the home or restaurant for banquet table settings. The hazards, won't burn down, and last as long as 1000 hours.

From the land of grief and trouble,
To the land of peace and rest,
God has taken our dear father
To the place of happiness.
You have suffered hours and hours of pain, to wait your cure, but all in vain,
"Thy God alone knew what was best."
And called you home to give you rest.

ON TRIAL FOR POLK KILLING

Four persons, two of them in absentia, have gone on trial in Salonika, Greece, for the murder of George Polk, American radio correspondent. Gregory Silekopoulos, 39, a former Greek Communist newspaperman, and his mother, Anna, 68, sit in court as their trial proceeds. (NEA Telephoto).

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 14 (AP)—Prices barely stirred in a pre-holiday stock market today.
A few shares swung as much as a point from the previous close but changes for the most part were in minor fractions. Gains and losses were fairly well divided.
Only a moderate amount of business was done as traders limited their activities in advance of the Good Friday recess tomorrow. The Exchange will be open for business as usual on Saturday.
Liggett & Myers, a fast-stepping issue in the past two sessions, improved for a while but later veered to the minus side. The stock dropped sharply Tuesday following word that the company planned to issue additional shares of stockholders but more than halved its loss on Wednesday.
Similarly, Montgomery Ward tended upward for a short time but later moved into minus territory. The stock has been under pressure lately as the last of the company's vice presidents handed in his resignation.
A couple of gold stocks—Dome and Homestake—came in for buying attention. Homestake added a full point and Dome a small fraction, possibly as a result of demand for gold issues on the London Stock Exchange.
Also up were Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Columbia Gas Consolidated, Natural Gas, American Can, du Pont, Allied Chemical, J. C. Penney, Philip Morris, Pennsylvania R.R., Union Pacific, and Gulf Oil.
Losers included Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, Sears Roebuck, Oliver Corp., American Telephone, Phelps Dodge, Dow Chemical, Tobacco N. Y. Central, Northern Pacific, Standard Oil (N. J.), and United Air Lines.

Quotations by Morgan Davis & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, 60 Beaver street, New York city, branch office, 41 John street, R. B. Osterhout, manager.

Two Farm Organizations Ask for Social Security

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Two large farm organizations asked Congress today to open the way for almost 10,000,000 farm operators and farm hands to get social security old age and survivors insurance.
However, the National Grange said farmer participation should be on a voluntary basis "at least to begin with, and coverage should not be made compulsory until it was proved to be administratively feasible."
The National Farmers Union fully endorsed the administration's new social security bill. It would bring farmers and farm workers into the program on the same compulsory basis as the 30,000,000 non-farm workers now covered.

College Women Hear Frederick Lewis

Frederick H. Lewis, executive director of the Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund, spoke to Kingston College Women's Club, Tuesday night concerning the problems which beset the American people. "Why we are and what our relationships are with others," are the main problems the speaker said. "The challenge of many ideas and the complicated concept of democracy has led to living in unreality. Mr. Lewis believes. Everything today is so indefinite and causes uneasiness among the people. In other periods, the crisis was clearly defined, the speaker pointed out, but today people are having a hard time squaring the future with the kind of world they would like to have. Americans today need more knowledge of their government and democracy to gain a passionate devotion for the American way of life, the speaker suggested. He spoke of American servicemen in Japan who when questioned about their country by Japanese who sincerely wanted to know more about democracy, could not satisfactorily answer the questions.

Mr. Lewis by way of example asked the women how much they know about housing, health, school programs and other projects of their government, how many people were serving on the various boards, and other facts concerning the operation of the projects.

"Until there is a wider diffusion of knowledge, there is going to be the same problem of leadership," he said. However, Mr. Lewis feels certain the individual American will save the day.

In discussing the Fresh Air Fund project Mr. Lewis noted that last year 4,500 children were sent to 13 different states along the northeastern seaboard. He reported the Friendly Town Plan where children visit in homes and said that some communities have been doing this for a number of years. Watertown has participated in the plan for 68 years. Other children are sent to camps.

Children who have had the opportunity to visit in homes or at camps do not resent their own homes, Mr. Lewis said, but rather are given new hope that some day they will be able to improve their own living conditions.

By invitation about 300 Negroes have been guests in the homes of white people, he reported. Because of lack of funds only 2,700 will be sent to camp this year whereas last year 3,800 were sent.

The meeting was held at the First Dutch Reformed Church House. During the business session the meetings of the interest groups were announced as follows: International Affairs, April 28; Mrs. John L. MacKinnon, 183 Manor avenue; and Book Group, April 19, also with Mrs. MacKinnon.

At the next meeting of College Club Judge Dorothy Kenyon, second vice president of the American Association of University Women, will be the speaker. This will be an open meeting.

Hostesses Tuesday night were Mrs. Hubert Hoderath, chairman; Miss Madeline Tarrant, and the Meses, Ashton H. Hart, Joseph McNellis, Wilson Norwood, Harry Stieffer, John M. Valentine, Arnold van Laer, Boyd N. Williams, and Richard Whiston.

Century Club Continues

Study of Countries

Consideration of two more countries was given at the Twentieth Century Club meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Soper, 287 West Chestnut street. Miss Mary Ingalls gave a study paper about India and Mrs. C. B. Dickinson on Germany.

Miss Ingalls described India as the world's oldest civilization, the melting pot of the Orient, where poverty and ignorance abound, but poetry and spiritual values have their part in the people's lives. A member of the British Empire since 1859, it now has a constitution similar to that of the United States and is known as the Indian Union having 347 Princely States and 22 provinces. The country is headed by Nehru and Patel, popular heroes, who are earnestly striving to better conditions by peaceful reform, instead of revolution.

She reported that India is a land of contrasts, extensive plains and snowcapped mountains, many languages, customs and religions. Marquis of fabulous wealth are literally worth their weight in gold but on the other, 700 people a day die of starvation. The railroads are the best in Asia, built by the British, but bullocks and bicycles are the local means of transportation. Sugar cane, tea and tobacco are among the crops grown on the fertile soil. Primitive methods are used. Rainfall is in one season and is stored in tanks and pools. Miss Ingalls noted that the sister of Prime Minister Nehru is being sent to the United States as ambassador.

Mrs. Dickinson spoke of pre-war Germany as rich in art, music and universities, a powerful country destroyed by greed. The eastern zone governed by the Russians who have smuggled out 200,000,000 dollars of material and have shown no signs of peaceful intentions. Recently an intensified campaign against the Christian church has been started. In western Germany governed by France, England and the United States, many shattered cities have been repaired but it is now in a critical period. A decision by the Big Three of turning back civil rule to Germany would not aid in forming a peace treaty, Mrs. Dickinson said. She spoke of the present rule of Germany under America, England, France and Russia as being preposterous.

Before the close of the meeting, Mrs. D. F. Wells, gave a talk on safety. She spoke of accidents at home and their prevention and of the responsibility of drivers and pedestrians in preventing accidents.

FOR THOSE IN MOURNING

A reader asks: "Why do you think that a few personal words of thanks, written by someone other than the bereaved, conveys more appreciation for a friend's kindness than the card provided for the family by the funeral home?"

Answer: In my opinion, no effort is required of the ones who are in deepest sorrow. They are not obliged to do anything themselves if they feel unequal to it. The intimate friend, who made certain at the funeral that upon each card was written a word or two describing the flowers from which it was removed, now goes to a stationer and orders a sufficient number of black bordered cards printed with the name of the most deeply bereaved, (the same friend perhaps assisted by others) then writes on each card, "Thanks for sympathy and beautiful" (whatever the flowers were), and then puts this card in a matching envelope, addresses it and mails it.

These few personal words assure the senders of the flowers that they were received and appreciated by the family. In the same way, letters, telegrams and other messages are personally acknowledged without any undue effort being required of the immediate family. But a printed card of thanks with no word added, sent to a devoted friend, cannot fail to have the effect of a rebuff.

May Young Sisters Receive Men?
Dear Mrs. Post: My sister is twenty-one and I'm eighteen. We are orphans and are going to take a small apartment together and live alone. Will our living alone mean that we never can have a boy-friend come into the apartment or give parties, except where both are home? She works in an office and I go to business school.

Answer: This question is not answerable in general because it is not correct for two young girls to have men visitors in an unchaperoned apartment. If you and your sister are dignified and the men you know are serious-minded, well-behaved, and never stay late, it may be possible to have such visitors without being criticized by your neighbors.

Good taste in letter writing includes the selection of proper stationery. Mrs. Post's booklet, No. 502, "Letter Writing" includes types of notes and paper to use. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, c/o this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Deliverymen Defeat Juniors In Benefit; Albany Gets $125

Bloom, R. Scheffel
Bucket 28 Markers

His old teammates lost the game, 68-76, but Joe Albany, once the peerless "Claw" of K.H.S. basketball lore was the winner by $125 in last night's benefit contest at the municipal auditorium.

That was the sum realized for Joe in the contest between Slicker's Delivery and Slicker's Juniors before about 250 persons. Len Slicker announced after the game. The amount was substantial considering the lateness of the season.

Albany, who was stricken with a serious leg injury early in the season with the Kingston High School squad, aggravated the old hurt late in the campaign and had to undergo a major operation. He is recuperating at the Kingston Hospital.

For three periods, the Juniors, Joe's former K.H.S. basketball comrades had the older and more experienced Deliverymen on the run. They led 20-25 at halftime and were in front 46-34 when the roof caved in.

Four straight left-handers from the side by "Slicker" McGrane and a couple of hook shots by George Bloom knotted the count at 46-46 as the Deliverymen staged a sensational spree. Even then it appeared the Juniors' superior speed would decide the contest, but Bloom, Murphy, and McGrane went haywire to win going away.

A pair of 28-point performances by the Juniors' inimitable Ronnie Scheffel and the Delivery's George Bloom highlighted the contest. Scheffel tossed in 13 buckets and two singletons, while Bloom, the leading scorer in local basketball, hit for a dozen baskets and four conversions.

Champ Holstein tallied 12 and his brother, George, had nine for the Juniors. Mike Flinn slumped badly and failed to score a point, an item that cannot be discounted in the Junior loss. Big Andy Murphy and McGrane aided the Delivery cause with 14 points each. For the Delivery it was a great moral victory. It left them with a clear cut claim to the 1948-49 Kingston city championships, by virtue of victories over Wiltwyck Motors and the Juniors.

Although a fifth place squad in the Orange-Sullivan League, the club earned the distinction of whipping the top three teams—Woodridge, Middletown and Beacon.

In an overtime preliminary, the Marlborough American Legion quintet shaded the City League All Stars, 68-63.

DiMaggio Expects Discharge Today; Treatment Is Set

Baltimore, April 14 (AP)—Joe DiMaggio expects his discharge from Johns Hopkins Hospital today—but there is still the big question of how long a sore heel will keep the big slugger out of the New York Yankee lineup.

Doctors examined him yesterday. They reported finding "immature calcium deposits" around his heel.

The star centerfielder has been plagued with ailments throughout his great career. His latest trouble started in Beaumont, Texas, last Saturday, his right heel, from which a bony growth—or "spur"—had been removed last November, pained him.

He left the team at Fort Worth and flew here, arriving at 2 a. m. yesterday.
Joe was examined by Dr. George A. Bennett, who had treated him often in the past. Afterwards, Dr. Edwin L. Crosby, director of the hospital, issued this statement:

DiMaggio was found to be suffering from "immature calcium deposits in tissues adjacent to his heelbone."

Usual Treatment
"He will receive the usual treatment for this condition, which is seen in many parts of the body."

"It is expected he will be discharged on April 14, but will continue treatment as an out patient. The length of the disability will be determined by the results of the treatment."

Doctors indicated the calcium deposits were different from the bone spur which had caused him so much pain in the closing weeks of last season.

They declined to predict how long the $100,000-a-year veteran would be laid up.

Dr. T. M. Girard, a Dallas specialist who examined the Yankee Clipper before he came to Johns Hopkins, described the ailment as an irritation requiring rest, inoculations and X-rays.

The Yanks open Tuesday. They would have very little chance of figuring in the American League pennant chase if their big star is lost for the season.

Gardella, Lawyers Deny Communist Charges Brought by Branch Rickey

New York, April 14 (AP)—Men who have hauled baseball into the courts struck back sharply today at Branch Rickey's charges that the game's reserve clause is opposed by persons of "avowed Communist tendencies."

The busy-browed president of the Brooklyn Dodgers made the statement in a talk before the Baltimore Advertising Club yesterday.

The people fighting the reserve clause, Rickey declared, "deeply resent the continuance of our national pastime."

The remarks drew quick return fire from Danny Gardella, the former Giant outfielder who has a $300,000 suit against the game pending, and from lawyers representing banned players.

Gardella, now an attendant at a Mount Vernon, N. Y. hospital, said the Rickey statement wasn't worthy of comment and added:

"My lawyer, Frederick A. Johnson, said he would match my own and Danny Gardella's record with that of Rickey any time."

"Rickey," Johnson added, "has had dictatorial powers so long he doesn't recognize the true principles of American life."

John L. Flynn, representing former St. Louis Cardinal pitchers Max Lanier and Fred Martin in a $250,000 suit, called the Rickey remarks "so ridiculous they are beyond comment."

"All we are seeking is a chance for these American citizens and veterans to work in the United States in their chosen profession," he added.

Lanier and Martin, who are reported preparing to enter semi-pro baseball in Canada, were not available for comment.

In his speech at Baltimore Rickey termed the reserve clause a baseball essential.

"It has worked out splendidly," he said. "The person cheating on the reserve clause is not the baseball owner—more fortunes have been lost than won in this game. So far as I know players favor the clause unanimously."

Training Camp News in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Washington, April 14 (AP)—Washington gets its first look at its 1949 Senators tonight when they meet the Brooklyn Dodgers in an exhibition game at Griffith Stadium.

The contest closes out the Senators' exhibition series against major league teams. They will rest tomorrow, then meet Baltimore here Saturday and in Baltimore Sunday.

Manager Barney Shotton of the Dodgers was hoping for good weather. The Brooks have been rained out three straight days.

He sent his pitchers through an hour drill in a drizzle in Baltimore yesterday to keep them in shape. Shotton said he would use Joe Hatten, Ralph Branca and Preacher Roe tonight. He continued to be evasive about his opening day pitcher except to say that he had made his decision and was keeping it to himself.

Cincinnati, April 14 (AP)—Johnny Lindell apparently will be the New York Yankees' centerfielder during the absence of the ailing Joe DiMaggio.

Lindell took over the post for nine innings yesterday as the Yanks whipped Terre Haute, Ind., of the Three-I League, 10-1. He singled and doubled in three times at bat and drove in three runs.

Today's visit against the Reds was the first trip to Cincinnati for the New York club since the 1939 world series.

Hickory, N. C., April 14 (AP)—The heavy hitting New York Giants were still searching today for starting pitchers. Clint Hartung, one of the biggest "4's" of the mound staff, drew the assignment here against Bobby Feller of the Cleveland Indians.

Only Larry Jansen has shown an ability to pitch consistently good ball in starting roles. Sheldon Jones was blasted for seven hits including home runs by Cleveland's Lou Boudreau and Ken Keltner in five innings yesterday.

The Giants won, however, 16-6, scoring 10 runs in the second inning.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 14 (AP)—Lefty Ken Raffensberger will be the first Red of the exhibition season to attempt to go full nine innings when Cincinnati meets the Yankees today at Crosley Field.

Raffy has been tabbed as probable starting pitcher for Cincinnati-St. Louis National League opener next Tuesday.

"Idled by wet grounds at Louisville yesterday, the Reds will oppose the Indianapolis Indians on three successive days in Indiana beginning tomorrow."

Hickory, N. C., April 14 (AP)—Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians, carefully training for an opening-game assignment against the St. Louis Browns Tuesday, will face the New York Giants here today.

He will try to go seven innings against the Gotham Maulers who yesterday teed off for 16 runs and 21 hits to down the Tribe 16 to 6. Sid Gordon, Johnny Mize, Bobby Thomson, and Mickey Livingston hit homers for the Giants.

Manager Lou Boudreau has not officially announced his choice to lead the Tribe into the pennant scramble, but it is believed Feller could clinch the nomination with an impressive showing.

Eight of the nine members of the North Carolina state tennis team are natives of the state.

With an original squad of 120 candidates pared down to 20 varsity and 25 Jayvee performers, the Kingston High School baseball nine opens the 1949 season on April 29 in Middletown in a DUSO contest.

Coach Willard Burke said today he would carry four pitchers, four catchers, six infielders and six outfielders. Coach Al Gruner, Jayvee mentor, has been assigned 25 players.

A total of 45 pitching candidates and 20 catchers responded to the first call for practice.

Levy, Schwamb, Tops

Henry Levy, Jr., a varsity flinger in 1948 and an American Legion Junior performer, and Ted Schwamb, a southpaw, stacked up as the two top flingers in the Maroon camp. Schwamb is a junior.

The four other flingers who survived the final cut were Richard Little, Adelbert Kuehn, Everett Landers and Charlie Piano. Gone, of course, is the matchless Clark Mains, an all-time K.H.S. pitching great.

Levy and John Kozlowski will grab the first string catching berth, with Alex Rowland and Farley available also.

The infield shapies as a strong unit with Moll Leonird or Dick Schultz at first base; veteran Ronald Jones at second; Mike Riehl, Joe DiMaggio, Dec Titus and Bud Scheffel at third; Riehl, Dec Titus and Joe Norton at shortstop. Phil De Cicco is the utility man. This quartet should rate with anything in the DUSO loop.

Good Outfield

The four-outfield candidates are Jim Riehl, Bud Scheffel, Dec Titus and Joe Norton. Titus, Riehl and Scheffel are holdovers. Norton distinguished himself, with the American Legion team last season and is a potentially dangerous hitter.

The 1949 schedule lists twelve regular games six in DUSO competition, and the usual home-and-home series with Beacon, Saugerties and Poughkeepsie.

A practice game will serve as an informal seasonal opener on April 26 against Windham.

Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees is the only active American Leaguer who enters the 1949 season with more than 300 home runs.

Pitcher Ralph Branca of the Brooklyn Dodgers is studying for a singing career and has made several crooning appearances in theaters and on television.

Lou Boudreau, shortstop-manager of the Cleveland Indians, enters the 1949 diamond season with a lifetime batting mark of .299 over 10 seasons.

C. of C. Directors Hold Session

The 1949 membership campaign plan and several community improvement activities were the principal new activities approved by the Kingston Chamber of Commerce at the board of directors' meeting, Wednesday night. President Robert E. Toetsel said today progress reports also were made on such projects as the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge, Broadway crossing elimination, industrial promotion and retail trade promotion.

Several studies in the field of important community activities were suggested by the Community Improvement Committee, of which Walter Donnamma is chairman, in a letter to the board of directors. In each case approval was given by the board to proceed with the projects which will be announced by the committee after more progress has been made. In addition the Community Improvement Committee was asked to start a study of taxes and city finances for possible future use and information.

The membership campaign will start in the very near future, through publicity and advertising, followed by an intensive mail campaign. All memberships are payable on May 1. Members and prospective members will be asked to send their dues in by mail to save the committee time and effort. A special folder outlining the services and functions of the Chamber of Commerce will be mailed to active members and prospective members. Memberships are the only source of income. The extent of the 1949-50 program will be governed by the amount of money available.

The directors' meeting Wednesday night was well attended. Those present included James P. Byrne, Eugene Carey, Byron S. Chatham, E. Frank Flanagan, Adrian Kaplan, Lawrence J. MacAvery, Harry Rigby, Jr., Edmund P. Rochford, Clifford D. Rose, Victor H. Roth, James L. Rowe, George W. Schneider, Edwin Th. Strong, Robert E. Toetsel, Mayor Oscar V. Newdick, and Albert Kurdt.

Nut-Sheller Clips

Latest nut-sheller clips small portions of the shell away instead of cracking the entire shell as done by ordinary nut openers. It is a hand tool of pier-like construction with cutting teeth of special steel sharpened to a very fine edge.

Group Treatment Is Newest Test in Pennsylvania Area

Philadelphia, April 14 (UP)—Group treatment, where 10 to 40 persons are talked to at one time, is the newest experiment in the 190 state hospitals where most of America's mentally ill are confined.

Near everyone is trying it, the state superintendents attending the Mental Hospital Institute of the American Psychiatric Association said today.

This kind of treatment originated before the war, and during the war was used in the military forces. It worked so well that it has become a postwar project.

The superintendents here said that there are occasional remarkable recoveries and that they do not know yet what rank this group treatment will take.

There are two kinds of group treatment. One is called "directed" and is limited usually to not more than 10 patients. A doctor talks to them about causes of emotional upsets. One day it may be headaches. Another the subject will be alcoholism. For alcoholics this lecture treatment works fairly well.

The other treatment is "non-directed." Groups may number up to 40 each. The doctor acts as moderator and the patients do most of the talking. The one outstanding fact in these groups is that a large number have almost exactly similar troubles, real or imagined. Discovering that some one else has the same kind of bad luck occasionally goes far toward helping recovery.

A special group treatment includes physical exercises for young patients. Dr. Isadore Tuerk, clinical director, Spring Grove State Hospital, Cantonville, Mr., said that this exercise and group treatment on some youngsters disturbed their mothers. The mothers were given group treatment to gain their cooperation.

Mass Tonsillectomy
Manhasset, N. Y., April 14 (AP)—The seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Backer of Carle Place went through a dis-assembly line at Manhasset Medical Center yesterday and wound up minus their tonsils. The seven tonsillectomies were completed by two doctors in three hours. The children — Robert, 12, Audrey, 11, Jean, 9, Lester, 8, Dorothy, 6, Richard, 4, and Ronald, 3—all were eating ice cream three hours after the last operation as they rested in five beds and two cribs in the same room.
